Twelve Accused Of Murder In Cotton Belt Deaths

THREE LOSE LIVES WHEN MEN STRIKE

Hatred and Violence Simmers and Bubbles in California Field Today

TWENTY PERSONS HURT

Growers Refuse to Mediate Claiming Strikers Are Supported by Governor

BULLETIN
TULARE, Calif., Oct. 11.—(UP)—Tulare county cotton strikers today demanded first degree murder convictions against cotton growers charged with killing two strikers at Pixley.

They planned also to send a delegation of five members to Sacramento to confer with Gov. James Rolph Jr. and Federal Relief Administrator Brannan, regarding their strike.

FRESNO, Cal., Oct. 11.—(UP)—The red brew of hatred and violence simmered and bubbled today beneath the ominous calm of the San Joaquin valley cotton belt, where three strikers were killed and nearly a score were injured in clashes last night.

Delfino Davila, 55, Tulare Mexican consular representative, and Delores Hernandez, 50, also of Tulare, were killed in a clash between cotton growers and strikers at Pixley. Pedro Subla, Kern county laborer, was shot to death in a fight at Arvin.

Seven men and a woman were wounded by gunfire in the Pixley fight. Four prominent Kern county cotton growers and a striker were beaten or shot at Arvin.

Davila and Hernandez were shot down as they stood in front of strike headquarters, without warning and without cause, according to their comrades.

Subla was shot, allegedly by Alonzo Andrews, 27, another striker who asserted was aiming his gun at a deputy sheriff.

At Pixley, strikers claimed, a caravan of 10 or 12 automobiles of growers drove up to a strike meeting, and then opened fire as the strikers poured into their hall. The growers, 12 of whom were named in murder warrants, declared a shot was fired first from

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Rear Admiral Norimasa Tada, head of the scientific division of Japanese naval aviation, sailed for home today without benefit of a "closeup" sight of the five U. S. navy seaplanes which arrived at San Diego Monday after a flight from Coco Solo, C. Z.

The Los Angeles Examiner declared the high ranking Japanese officer was refused a request to approach the squadron at the North Island air base for a close inspection. Tada accepted the refusal without trace of rancor and with the brief announcement he had been unable to inspect other U. S. military and naval aircraft while on a swing across the continent, the Examiner said.

SOVIET-JAPAN RELATIONS ARE MORE STRAINED

Open Break Between Eastern Nations Looms as Charges Hurdled

TOKIO, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Russian-Japanese relations, embittered for many months, approached an open break today over charges that Japanese officials conspired to seize the Chinese Eastern railway.

Thoroughly angered by Russian charges, made public Sunday, the government ordered a complete report from Ambassador Tamekichi Ota and summoned the correspondent of the official Russian news agency, Tass, to demand an explanation why he gave copies of the charges to Tokio newspapers.

On the government's view of Ambassador Ota's report, it was said officially, depends whether a full cabinet meeting will be summoned to consider Japan's position.

The Tass agency representative's statement to the information bureau chief detailed to question him was referred to Foreign Minister Hirota "without recommendations," a spokesman said. Expulsion of the Russian news agent was considered by the government.

Though discussions naturally were on a diplomatic basis, they forced attention to the imminent possibility of a war in the Far East between Japan and Soviet Russia.

Ever since Japan, with military men directing the government's policies, seized Manchuria from China and made it into the new state of Manchukuo, relations have been strained to a point where any serious incident might lead to a complete break.

An official spokesman openly intimated today that a break in relations was possible if Russia "persisted" in publishing charges which Japan holds to be absolutely false, such as those of the conspiracy to seize the railway, which is of tremendous strategic importance to both nations and owned partly by Russia.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—(UP)—An enlisted men's revolt aboard the battle cruiser Hood, pride of the British fleet and most powerful naval vessel in the world, was reported in naval and civilian circles today.

Apparently similar to the serious mutiny in the fleet two years ago, which was politely termed "insubordination," it was reported to have occurred on the giant warship while she was on her way to the fall naval maneuvers in the North Sea.

Destroyers were reported to have taken disaffected enlisted men from the Hood.

The Hood's enlisted men were ashore at Inverforth Monday. There was no hint of disaffection.

FORCIBLE FEEDING OF SLAYER PLANNED

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Forcible feeding was contemplated today by hospital officials as a means of breaking the "hunger strike" of Mrs. Hazel O'Brien, desirous of following her two small sons in death she dealt them.

Attendants revealed she has steadfastly refused food since she was brought to the hospital last Saturday after shooting her children, William 15, and Willis Jr., 13, and then herself. Although still in a serious condition from the wound, she is expected to recover.

Warren K. Billings, convicted with Tom Mooney in connection with the preparedness parade in San Francisco, today asked the state board of pardons for a parole.

FLORIDA 33RD STATE TO JOIN REPEAL GROUP

Latest Figures Show Vote Nearly Four to One to Repeal Dry Law

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 11.—(UP)—The approval of only three states was needed today to end national prohibition. Florida, the 33rd state to vote, yesterday became the 33rd state to repudiate the 18th amendment.

Incomplete returns indicated the state had voted repeal by a majority of about 4 to 1.

Seven states vote Nov. 7 and they are expected to seal the doom of the 18th amendment. Repeal will not become effective until Dec. 5 when the 36th state holds its ratification convention. Thirty-six states must ratify before the 21st (repeal) amendment can become a part of the constitution.

Tabulations of returns from 812 of Florida's 1,275 precincts showed 79,388 votes for repeal and 19,922 against. All but eight of the 67 counties, five of them complete, were represented.

A long and confusing ballot made counting of the votes slow and final complete returns were not expected to be known for several days.

The 67 delegates to the convention Nov. 14 were elected from the state at large.

Only one precinct was reported unanimously dry. It was in Leon county of which Tallahassee is the county seat. It voted 71 to 9 against repeal.

All votes counted were wet in several precincts.

SURGEON CAN ADD INCHES IN HEIGHT
CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Italy, whose medieval artists prized their skill with surgeons' scalpels as highly as their talents with paint and brush, presented today a master surgical craftsman whose deft fingers can add three inches to a man's height and who can thus cure lameness due to one leg being shorter than the other.

DILLON DENIES PECORA CHARGE OF GAMBLING

Reorganization of Seaboard Company Termed Only Business Risk

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Dillon, Read and company reorganization of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad in 1929 was characterized today by Ferdinand Pecora, Senate stock market inquisitor, as a "business gamble" into which the bankers put funds of the investing public controlled by their investment trusts.

Clarence Dillon, head of the firm, challenging that description of the transaction, contending it merely was a "business risk."

Dillon also testified that the greatest losses to investors in his company's investments were in securities of corporations in which members of the firm or directors of the trusts had an interest.

Discussion of rail investment trusts controlled by Dillon, Read and company elicited from Dillon the opinion that it was a general practice in Wall Street to make year-end sales of securities for income tax purposes, and that the practice might have the effect of depressing the market.

Returning to the rail investments, Pecora asked: "Is it your belief that it is the business of investment trusts to furnish capital for new enterprises and for the reorganization of old enterprises or to go into the securities of established value and established income?"

"It is their business to invest money," Dillon said, "and it is my feeling that it is their business to go into any profitable field."

"When did Seaboard go into re-corporation?" Pecora asked. "December, 1929," Dillon said. "That is 11 months after the reorganization," Pecora said. "Were you cognizant in 1929 that the reorganization you had undertaken might fail?" Pecora asked.

"Obviously not," Dillon replied. "We were not infallible," he said. "But I think we would do the same thing again."

"You mean you will still take a gamble?" Pecora asked, and Dillon again objected to the use of the word, adding that he thought few banks could show a better investment record than that of the investment trusts controlled by his firm.

The investigation of today involved a member of the investigating committee when it was revealed that Senator McAdoo, Democrat, California, was counsel for Dillon, Read and company in 1921 negotiations connected with a $12,000,000 Brazilian loan now in default.

Robert O. Hayward, Dillon-Read vice president in charge of foreign business, named McAdoo when Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, began questioning him about the loan to the city of Rio de Janeiro.

OFFENSIVE STARTED AGAINST VIOLATORS
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(UP)—A major offensive against violators of NRA agreements opened today as the Recovery Administration began to make good on its oft-repeated threats to take Blue Eagles away from "chiselers."

Bond Issue Proposed To Cancel Debt

Nearly Million to Be Asked to Be Expended for Work on Harbor

APPLICATION for a government loan covering approximately $915,000, Orange county's half of the proposed $1,835,441 to be expended on improvement of Newport Harbor was approved yesterday by the board of supervisors.

Willard Smith, chairman of the board and County Clerk J. M. Backs were authorized to sign the application.

The application is in connection with one filed August 5, last, by the City of Newport and recommended by Maj.-Gen. Lytle Brown, chief of engineers of the United States Army, as a federal project.

Under the present program the War Department has accepted the project and will finance half of the job as a federal project with the county providing the remaining half of the funds. The county's application is being sent the federal emergency administrator of public works for a grant and loan in accordance with the gift and loan provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

It was pointed out at the meeting yesterday that if the loan is approved by Washington, and indications are that the approval is a formality that will be forthcoming, it will be necessary for the county to vote on its share at a bond election.

The bonds, if approved by the voters, will be turned over to the government at 4 per cent to run approximately 30 years. In discussing the bond proposal it was pointed out that under a table prepared by R. L. Patterson, city engineer of Newport Beach, it will cost approximately 5 cents annually on each $100 of assessed valuation.

THREE ARE KILLED IN FREAK ACCIDENT

FRESNO, Cal., Oct. 11.—(UP)—A freak motorcycle accident and an automobile-truck collision claimed the lives of three persons last night. A fourth was reported near death today in a Fowler hospital.

Mary Jane Acuff, 21, prominent Visalia girl and daughter of B. W. Acuff, Visalia insurance man, was killed when her car was demolished in a collision with a vegetable truck driven by Homer Ditt, Fresno Chinese, near Fowler. Ditt was critically injured. Miss Acuff was a former University of California coed.

Merle Fultz, 22, and Hans Hansen, 22, Fresno district youths, were killed instantly when motorcycles they were riding apparently locked wheels, hurling them into the roadway.

EVANGELIST SHOTS MAN WITH SHOTGUN

JONESBORO, Ark., Oct. 11.—(UP)—The first fatality in Jonesboro's three-year church war came today when John McMurdo, 65-year-old watchman of the Jonesboro tabernacle, died from gunshot wounds inflicted by the Rev. Dale Crowley, militant evangelist.

Rev. Crowley was held in jail after the shooting yesterday when he fired three shots into the aged watchman who would not obey the pastor's orders to leave the tabernacle.

KATHRYN KELLY ADMITS SHE PARTICIPATED IN KIDNAPING

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Kathryn Kelly told the second Urschel kidnaping trial jury in federal court today that she participated in the $200,000 abduction plot because she feared her husband, George (Machine Gun) Kelly. The Auburn-haired woman and her husband are co-defendants on Lindbergh law charges. She began her story after the government rested its case with testimony that Kelly himself admitted connections with a gigantic kidnaping and robbery ring centered in Chicago.

Kelly, who was claimed to have counseled with the slain Gus Winkler, the notorious Verna Miller and Joe Bergl of Cicero after the kidnaping, will not testify, his attorneys said. The much-married wife of the gangster and terrorist was the second defense witness. Walking with mincing steps and smiling at the witness stand, sat down, crossed her legs and began her story. Government witnesses had pictured her as a hard woman who said Urschel should have been killed after the ransom was paid.

She smiled continuously at the jury. Once when Joseph B. Keenan, objected to a defense question, and was overruled, she turned to bald, bespectacled Judge Edgar S. Vaughn before giving her answer.

REMOVE BODIES OF VICTIMS IN PLANE'S CRASH

CHESTERTON, Ind., Oct. 11.—(UP)—The charred bodies of seven persons were removed today from the wreckage of a giant transcontinental passenger plane that exploded in midair and crashed in flames near here.

As the last of the bodies, all burned beyond possible recognition, was removed department of commerce officials arrived and began an immediate investigation into the cause of the crash.

Three members of the crew and four passengers aboard the United Air lines silver monoplane NC13304 were killed in the crash and their bodies burned beyond possible recognition by flames that reduced the ship to a charred mass of wreckage.

Names of the victims, as taken from the passenger list of the air line, were:

H. R. Tarrant, Chicago, pilot. A. T. Ruby, Chicago, co-pilot. Alice Schreiber, Chicago, stewardess. H. R. Burris, Columbus, O., radio operator. Miss E. M. Dwyer, Arlington, Mass., a passenger. E. Mitt, Chicago, a passenger. Fred Schoendorf, Chicago, a passenger.

The plane, flying from Cleveland to Chicago, was within 50 miles of its goal when an explosion occurred. It slipped out of control at an altitude of about 1,000 feet and shot toward earth at a terrific speed.

SIX MILLIONS IN RELIEF BONDS SOLD

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 11.—(UP)—Sale of $6,000,000 of state unemployment relief bonds to a pool headed by R. H. Moulton and company, San Francisco, was announced today by State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson.

Money realized from the sale will be loaned to cities and counties to provide direct aid to the jobless and will be available at once, Johnson said.

BRITISH OFFER OF TWO PLANS TO SETTLE DEBTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(UP)—The reasons Great Britain believes it is entitled to reduction of its $4,300,000,000 war debt lay before treasury department officials today, but the amount of the desired reduction remained a mystery.

Undersecretary of Treasury Acheson and Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, economic advisor to Great Britain, were scheduled to meet again tomorrow. The British plan of debt reduction may be presented then.

Reports from London indicate the British want either a "lump sum" settlement of 10 cents on the dollar or a series of reduced payments. Sir Frederick declined to make public any part of his plan.

Approach Problem
The first serious approach to the war debt problem was made in a conference between Acheson, Sir Frederick, Frederick Livesay, assistant economic advisor of the state department; British Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay, and Samuel Behl, U. S. treasury expert.

A four-point appeal was set out by Sir Frederick and is being studied by Acheson and his assistants. It was:

1. Great Britain received less favorable treatment when its debt was funded than did the other borrowing nations. Figuring yearly interest on the debts at 3 1/2 per cent, the British settlement accounted for 99 per cent of all money advanced by the U. S. treasury, whereas the French settled for only 62 per cent and the Italians for only 34 per cent.

2. When the debt settlement was made it was anticipated that world prosperity would increase, whereas it has diminished.

3. Great Britain spent far more here during the war than the amount borrowed from the U. S. treasury, thus profiting both American business and the government.

4. The war debts were not a commercial loan. Hence they did not produce revenue with which to repay them. Rather, they were expended for destruction—in shot and shell. Sir Frederick estimated that $1,000,000,000 of the amount borrowed from the United States was spent for munitions alone.

APPLICATION FILED WITH STATE BOARD

Hearing Probably Will Be Held in December; Tom Mooney Takes No Action

FIRST REQUEST MADE

Man Serving Life Sentence for Part in Preparedness Parade is Silent

FOLSOM PRISON, Cal., Oct. 11.—(UP)—Warren K. Billings, serving a life sentence for his part in the 1918 San Francisco Preparedness Day bombing, today applied for a parole.

It was his first request for consideration by the state board of prison terms and paroles. His hearing probably will be held in December, according to Warden Court Smith.

Application for the parole was filed with Albert Munt, deputy clerk of the parole board. Copies will be forwarded to the San Francisco police chief, district attorney and sheriff, and to the trial judge.

Billings made no comment. Billings and Tom Mooney were convicted of murder in connection with the 1918 bombing, which killed ten persons during a Preparedness Day parade. Both were given life sentences. Billings was brought to Folsom prison because he previously had served a prison term. Mooney is in San Quentin.

The case of Billings has been forced into the background by Mooney's frequent battles to obtain a pardon. Mooney always insisted he never would seek a parole, because that, in a way, would be an admission of guilt. He desires a complete pardon.

Both maintained their innocence of the charges and for 17 years Billings followed Mooney's lead in refusing to ask for a parole. His action today surprised prison officials. Billings did not say why he changed his mind.

CLOUDBURST HOLDS SCORE IN DESERT

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 11.—(UP)—A cloudburst left a transcontinental motor bus and more than a score of private automobiles stranded in the Mohave desert today.

The machines were marooned when the storm caught them on the National Old Trails highway between Barstow and Victorville. Passengers on bus and private machines made their way on foot to Barstow in safety.

The storm destroyed a quarter-mile of the highway. The automobiles were all but covered by sand and silt. Road crews set out today to free them and build a detour around the damaged section of highway.

The storm extending to the mountainous regions near Lebec trapped E. Ray Cato, state highway patrol chief, as he was en route to Bakersfield on the Ridge route.

12 ACCUSED OF MURDER DURING PIXLEY STRIKE

The strike headquarters, wounding one grower.

The Arvin clash occurred when strike pickets and growers and officers met at the E. O. Mitchell ranch.

No Arbitration

Valley growers, according to their representatives, will not arbitrate the demands of strikers for $1 per hundredweight picked. They will pay 60 cents a hundred pounds, the established scale, and no more, they insisted.

"Why should we mediate with any of Governor Rolph's agents?" one grower demanded. "Every one of them is on the side of the strikers. They can't see our side of it at all. All they want is to get something for the strikers. We can't and won't back that combination."

"We can afford to pay only 60 cents a hundred. We can get all the pickers we want from Texas and the southeast for that sum, and we'll get them unless these California pickers go back to work at once or get out. We'll protect the pickers we get, too."

Accounts of how the fatal fray at Pixley began differed. Billy Thomas, 24, Los Angeles, and J. J. Murray, 55, Pixley, told the United Press the growers

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

BEVERLY HILLS, Oct. 11. (To the Editor of The Register.) Poor Mr. Roosevelt. He no more than gets one national thing straightened out than along comes something else. Just getting the codes out of the way when along comes Kansas and almost beats Notre Dame. Now he has to drop everything till he gets Notre Dame straightened out.

Manager Terry of the Giants was sentenced to five years in New York. Looks like Cronin was really the winner. He was only sentenced to three years in Washington. He is young yet and will be when he gets out. Say, did you know our popular Governor, Jimmy Rolph, who has worn boots all his life, is not well? Puts crazy doctor made him put on shoes.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

fired without warning as strikers entered their meeting hall on the Pixley main street.

George Lutz, Earlhart, also a striker, gave a slightly different version of the affair.

Gives Version

"We were just going into the hall," he said. "Two ranchers left their cars on the other side of the highway and walked toward us. One of them carried a pistol and the other a rifle. Hiram May had the pistol. Someone of our group grabbed him. The other man, named Stark, slugged him over the head. He dropped. Then May fired several shots into him as he lay on the ground."

"Then the other ranchers started shooting."

State highway patrolmen picked up more than 20 empty rifle and pistol shells where the ranchers' automobiles were said to have been parked.

May, interviewed at the Tulare county jail, denied he fired any shots or that he saw any of the farmers shooting. "I heard several shots," he don't know who fired them," he told the United Press. He refused to discuss the matter further.

Kruger, a Kern county special deputy sheriff, said the growers were called to Pixley because "there was trouble at the judge's office," where 17 strike pickets were under arrest on misdemeanor charges.

Pedro Subia, Kern county laborer, was killed when a group of ranchers and strike pickets came together on the highway near the E. O. Mitchell ranch near Arvin. Four prominent growers and 4 strikers were injured.

Shot in Chest

Subia was shot through the chest, supposedly by a picket directing his fire at Deputy Sheriff T. J. Carter.

The clash was precipitated when Hugh S. Jewett, prominent Kern grower, attempted to leave the ranch in his automobile, eyewitnesses said.

A group of pickets approached the car, dragged Jewett out and immediately a group of other growers, who had been summoned to the ranch by Mitchell, entered the fray.

Heavy grape stages, used to train vines, were swung. A shot was fired and Subia dropped. Carter and other officers, who were patrolling the district, hurried tear gas and the mob was dispersed.

Jewett, severely beaten, was unconscious for three hours. Others injured were Lloyd Frick, president of the California Cotton Growers association; Harry Thompson, grower; Bud Ledbetter, Arvin farmer. All were beaten severely. Mervel Veloz, a striker, was shot through the arm.

Later Capt. Roy Galven of the highway patrol and Deputy Sheriff William Young arrested Alonzo Andrews, 27, described as a strike leader, on suspicion of murder charges.

Andrews, they claimed, was hidden in a tree when Carter approached the fight from the roadway. They said Andrews, aiming at Carter, shot Subia when the latter unwittingly jumped into the line of fire.

WARNING IS ISSUED BY GOVERNOR ROLPH

Gov. James Rolph Jr., warning the public of imposters pretending to be officers of the law, issued a statement to the press of California today by flashing a statewide message over the police teletype system.

"I was advised last night that men assuming authority but clothed with no authority are pretending to assume authority and in some cases have armed themselves with deadly weapons, claiming to be authorized to preserve the peace. This is to notify each and every one of these individuals that they have no authority at law to preserve the peace or to act other than law abiding citizens until sworn in by the sheriff of the county or duly constituted officers authorized by him to make appointments of officers of the law and duly sworn in for that purpose."

"Any persons claiming himself to hold authority and doing so falsely will be punished as the law prescribes by the authority of the officers having authority to carry out the law."

"I am cooperating with the rightful authorities in every county of the state and holding them responsible for preserving peace. They need have no fear whatever because when they need help I will have it there whenever said help is needed."

"You may go ahead," said Judge Vaught, seriously.

Kathryn said Kelly woke her at 4:30 a. m. July 23, while she was a visitor at the farm of her grandmother, near Stratford, Okla., and gave her the first intimation of the kidnaping. Urschel had been taken from his mansion here a few hours before.

She said Kelly told her he was "delivering a man to the Arkansas line."

"He said, 'We have a kidnaped man outside.'"

When the aged, feeble grandmother heard this, she made the men, presumably Kelly and Bates, leave.

"You never did go out and see the kidnaped man?"

"Oh, no sir."

Kelly threatened her, she said, when she went to the Shannon farm a few days later and learned that Kelly and Bates had a man in her step-brother Armon's tenant house. Bailey was at the Shannon home, she testified, though she knew him as "Mr. Brennan." (Bailey's real name.)

Lead of the Newport Harbor chamber of commerce.

Rogers, Rousseau and Patterson returned recently from Washington, D. C., where they spent several days in conference with the war department and other government officials gaining approval of the project and the proposed method of financing.

Of the total cost of the improvement, according to a report prepared by Patterson, $561,352 will be expended for direct labor and provide employment for 230 men for 12 months. The report also showed that 75 per cent of the cost of the dredging work, which is the largest single item on the proposed improvement, will be for direct and indirect labor.

Dredging Cooley

Analyzing the project and the cost for each phase of the work, Patterson's report shows that dredging will cost $1,202,429. This will include deepening the channel, removing sand bars from the harbor and widening the yacht turning basin.

Extension of the east jetty for an additional 920 feet will cost $287,868, an extending the west jetty for 760 feet will cost $345,441.

To bring the harbor up to its present development the City of Newport Beach and Orange county have expended a total of $2,281,802. It was pointed out that with the proposed improvements completed the harbor could be used by smaller craft of the navy, such as submarines and submarine chasers, in addition to offering a harbor for the more palatial yachts now located at Wilmington and Long Beach.

Because of its possibilities for navy craft, it was pointed out the federal government would retain an interest in the harbor and assist in future development.

The project would be completed under direction of army engineers and all contracts would be awarded by the War Department, proponents of the project pointed out yesterday to the supervisors.

Rush Application

The application is being rushed to Washington, immediately in an effort to secure its approval in time to include the bond election if it becomes necessary, on the ballot for the December 19 election called in connection with a state wide water project.

If it is possible to include the bond proposal on that ballot considerable money would be saved to the county through elimination of a special election.

MANY SIGN PETITION ON CITY HALL SITE

With more than 1000 signatures already secured on the petitions asking that the city council build a new city hall on the corner of Third and Main street, leaders of the movement held a meeting this afternoon at Ketter's cafe to make reports.

About 25 petitions are being circulated, it was announced by W. B. Martin, president of the Citizens Civic Affairs association, which is backing the signing of the petitions. The movement was started following the plan of the city council to lease and remodel the old school building at Tenth and Main streets for a city hall. Martin indicated that the petitions will be presented to the city council next Monday night.

Firemen Speed To Fourth, Broadway

Screaming sirens and speeding fire trucks caused a big commotion at Fourth and Broadway at 5:40 p. m. yesterday but a quick survey of the Moore building by firemen revealed that there had been no fire.

A large crowd collected around the fire trucks which arrived from all stations. It is believed that a hot electric motor was responsible for calling out the firemen.

CHAMBER TOLD OF SALES TAX. HIGHWAY WORK

Talks on the state sales tax, state highway work and county welfare work were given at a boosters' dinner held by the Garden Grove Chamber of Commerce at the Woman's Civic clubhouse Tuesday night, the principal speakers being Frank Wright, Whittier, assemblyman from the 15th district; State Highway Commissioner P. A. Stanton and Byron Curry, head of the welfare department of the county. Sixty-five were present.

Wright explained how the state sales tax is saving property owners money. Through the passage of the Riley-Stewart bill, he said, the school costs were taken from the counties and put on the state. It became necessary, the speaker explained, for the state to devise some way to make up this sum and the sales tax was the answer.

Orange county, Wright stated, was relieved of $21,594 in taxes and a 77 cent reduction in taxes on each $100 assessed valuation of property had been made, he said. At present six million persons are paying the bill formerly carried by 750,000 persons, owing to the workings of the sales tax, Wright declared.

State Highway Commissioner Stanton extended congratulations to Garden Grove on the construction program carried out by the community following the earthquake. He said that he had been accused by the state legislature of being partial to Orange county. He spoke of the inclusion of Ocean avenue into the state highway system and of other roads in the Southland now a part of the state system.

Supervisor John C. Mitchell introduced Curry, who told of the operation of the county welfare office. Violin numbers were presented by Irvin German, who was accompanied by Mrs. German at the piano. R. D. Adams, president, presided.

Plan To Excuse H. S. Students For Game On Friday

D. K. Hammond announced today that all high school students who could furnish a written statement from home that they had transportation to the football game in Pasadena Friday would be excused from their afternoon classes.

Hammond explained that the usual method of shortening classes and closing school early was abandoned because only a very small percentage of the student body is able to attend the out of town games on Friday, and this method will keep them either at school or at the game.

He emphasized that a student, in order to be excused, must bring a written statement from home, saying that he has transportation to the game, otherwise he will have an absence chalked against his name.

Chest Pledges Of $9600 Are Reported

More than $9,600 in pledges is reported in the 1933 Community Chest appeal following a meeting of the campaign executive committee yesterday evening. The total announced is the result of the first week of work by the Advance Gifts department only.

"The showing so far is excellent," was the comment of W. K. Hillyard, acting president of the Chest. "Additional work by the Advance Gifts group and reports this week from the four employees departments should start us on our intensive drive October 16 with far more than half of our $33,500 goal accomplished," Mr. Hillyard added.

PENNY DRIVE TO BOOST LOAN FUND

A "penny drive" to benefit the student loan fund of the high school and junior college will be conducted throughout all Santa Ana schools tomorrow, on Columbus Day. It was announced today by Mrs. Sam Hurwitz, chairman of the student loan committee for the Santa Ana council, Parent-Teacher's association.

Each child in school was asked to bring a penny or more to school. The money raised will be placed in the student loan fund, handled by Mrs. F. H. Heine, financial secretary of the organization.

JOHN HEITSHUSEN CALLED BY DEATH

John H. Heitshusen, pioneer resident of Orange county, passed away last night at his home at Olive. He was born in Germany and came to this country 65 years ago, coming to Orange county 30 years ago. Surviving Mr. Heitshusen are his widow, Mrs. Anna D. Heitshusen, one daughter, Mrs. Anna Linart, two sons, Herman D. Heitshusen and Fred J. Heitshusen, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren, all of Olive.

FOUR INJURED IN SERIES OF AUTO CRASHES

Four persons were hurt in three wrecks yesterday and this morning in Orange county with one confined in the Santa Ana Valley hospital in a serious condition.

Although police reports show that an unknown woman was hurt at 1:15 p. m. yesterday in a wreck on Ocean avenue west of Garden Grove, it is believed that Marie Diaz, 40, Stanton, and Refugio Rincon, 45, Stanton, who were treated at the Orange county hospital early yesterday afternoon might have been in the crash.

Hospital attendants were not informed where the wreck occurred and Frank Martinez, 23, Stanton, was the driver of the car which overturned in a ditch trying to avoid a large hay truck driven by Harry Jentges, 52, Garden Grove. Mrs. Diaz received a sprained back while the other woman suffered a broken collar bone. They were not held at the hospital.

A. Esmonde Stephenson, Los Angeles truck driver, was brought to the Santa Ana Valley hospital this morning after his truck crashed into a lamp post on South Glassell street, Orange. He was brought to Santa Ana by Officer John Elliste, who thought the man fainted at the wheel. The truck veered across the highway before hitting the post.

G. C. Advincula, 27, Stanton, suffered a broken collar bone at 7 a. m. today when his car and a machine driven by O. B. Hill, 35, Hansen road, Buena Park, collided at Western avenue and Ninth streets in Buena Park. Both drivers were given traffic tickets for failure to show an operator's license. Advincula was treated by a physician and taken home.

Trapping to aid jobless

MARQUETTE, Mich., (UP)—A rise in the market price of pelts of all kinds will mean a revival in hunting and trapping in Michigan this fall and winter, the State Department of Conservation predicts. The department advocates trapping as a means of livelihood for unemployed.

MANY SIGN PETITION ON CITY HALL SITE

With more than 1000 signatures already secured on the petitions asking that the city council build a new city hall on the corner of Third and Main street, leaders of the movement held a meeting this afternoon at Ketter's cafe to make reports.

About 25 petitions are being circulated, it was announced by W. B. Martin, president of the Citizens Civic Affairs association, which is backing the signing of the petitions. The movement was started following the plan of the city council to lease and remodel the old school building at Tenth and Main streets for a city hall. Martin indicated that the petitions will be presented to the city council next Monday night.

Firemen Speed To Fourth, Broadway

Screaming sirens and speeding fire trucks caused a big commotion at Fourth and Broadway at 5:40 p. m. yesterday but a quick survey of the Moore building by firemen revealed that there had been no fire.

A large crowd collected around the fire trucks which arrived from all stations. It is believed that a hot electric motor was responsible for calling out the firemen.

SECURE FUNDS FOR SPREADING ON UPPER RIVER

Additional water spreading in the upper Santa Ana river and tributaries was assured today following the approval of the San Bernardino board of supervisors of an allocation of funds for matching the last of the state's $200,000 fund for Santa Ana river flood control work.

The appropriation was for a total of $88,830.78, which it was announced, would furnish employment to crews on five projects for 90 days or less.

More than $500,000 already has been spent on Santa Ana river spreading projects in San Bernardino county during the past two years, the funds coming from the federal government, state, county, water districts and private water companies.

The final allocation of Santa Ana river flood control money, as authorized by San Bernardino officials, provides $11,084.51 for San Antonio canyon and $4622.71 for Cucamonga canyon; $9245.43 for Lytle creek; $2773.63 for lower Lytle creek, and $11,084.51 for work in San Timoteo canyon, near Redlands.

24 BABIES EXAMINED

COSTA MESA, Oct. 11.—Twenty-four babies were examined by Dr. Edward Lee Russell of the county health department Tuesday at the local Woman's club house where a clinic was held under the auspices of the Friday Afternoon club. County nurse, Miss Cotton, assisted. Mrs. D. J. Dodge, chairman of child welfare, was in charge of the meeting.

Bronchial Troubles Need Creomulsion

Bronchial troubles may lead to something serious. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

COUNTY UNEMPLOYED COUNCIL ADOPTS 16 HOUR WEEK FOR HANDLING FOOD, SUPPLIES

Advised that federal supplies of gasoline and oil would be available today, the Unemployed Council of Orange County took action last night at Westminster to recommend a 16-hour working week for the members of the local groups in gathering and distributing food, crops and supplies.

CONVICTION IN REGISTRATION CASE SECURED

Francisco Gandara, Anaheim, was believed to be the first criminal to be convicted under new criminal registration laws being passed in Southern California, following his commitment to the Orange County jail this morning for three months by Judge Kenneth Morrison.

Gandara was found guilty under the new county ordinance 316, despite his plea of not guilty. When arrested on September 27 he pleaded ignorance of the registration law, which went into effect on September 15. The defendant has a prison record dating back to 1936, and has been in San Quentin prison four times, Folsom twice and several county jails. Judge Morrison said the three-month sentence would be suspended if San Bernardino authorities cared to press felony charges of escape from a prison chain gang. Gandara was sentenced to serve 30 days on petty theft charges last November and escaped five days later.

GETS 90 DAYS FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING

Six men were brought into police court Monday, one for drunk driving, four for drunkenness and one for vagrancy.

G. Ray Newman, charged with drunk driving, was committed to the county jail for 90 days by Judge J. G. Mitchell.

Julian Cabrillos, charged with drunkenness, was fined $15, which he paid, instead of going to jail for 7 1/2 days while George Moore and Pearce Clements of Los Angeles and Charles E. Parsons, all charged with drunkenness, were given suspended 10-day jail sentences by Judge Mitchell.

Albert Walton was given a suspended 10-day jail sentence for vagrancy.

CAFETERIAS AT CITY SCHOOLS SHOW PROFIT

Cafeterias at the high school and two junior high schools showed a profit for the three weeks they were in operation in September, according to a report submitted to the school board last night by Miss Dorothy McFarlane, cafeteria manager.

In her report Miss McFarlane showed a total profit of $74.90 for the three cafeterias. The greatest profit was shown at the Willard Junior High school where the cafeteria cleared $87.73 for the three weeks. Profit at the high school was $9.35. The Lathrop Junior High school cafeteria showed a loss of $22.19.

According to a report prepared by the administration office of the school system the profit was $78.47. This was explained by Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson who said that at the time Miss McFarlane prepared her report there were certain discounts due her of which she had not been notified.

In all the schools, according to Miss McFarlane's report, the biggest return was the first week schools were open. The second week showed a decline in all the schools and the third week, at the high school and Willard showed increased business. At Lathrop the drop in income continued.

Miss McFarlane is operating the cafeterias under a contract with the school board under which she will receive her salary only from the profits of the cafeteria. Board members were gratified at the report as last year the cafeterias had ended the year with a loss of approximately $600.

RUTH CHATTERTON AT WALKER STATE

Ruth Chatterton comes to Walker's State theater today in the title role of "Lilly Turner."

As Lilly Turner, the dancer and come-on girl for a carnival, she has in this picture more clandestine love affairs that most actresses portray in a lifetime.

The picture, based on the stage success by Phillip Dunning and George Abbott, reveals the life behind the scenes of the players in the tawdry medicine tent shows and the glamorous carnivals.

"Lilly Turner" is a vivid, realistic story with frivolity and pathos and real dramatic power. George Brent plays the leading masculine role opposite Miss Chatterton. Others in the cast include Frank McHugh, Ruth Donnelly and Guy Kibbee.

VISITS SISTER IN NORTH BREA, Oct. 11.—Jack Collins has gone to Oakland to visit his sister, Miss Agnes Collins, who has been convalescing in a rest home there from a very serious illness. A letter from the attending nurse indicated that Miss Collins was not improving as had been hoped for.

Advisor To Meet 4-H Clothing Club Leaders Two Days

Miss Zilla E. Mills, extension specialist of the University of California, will be in Orange county October 16 and 17 for the purpose of outlining the subject matter for 4-H Clothing clubs with the local leaders, according to Eric E. Eastman, assistant farm advisor.

The meeting on October 16 will be devoted to the making of the fourth phase kit at the home of Mrs. Floyd L. Benton, Ninth Street and Katella road, starting at 9:30 a.m. The meetings on October 17 will be arranged with new leaders upon request, starting with a meeting in the farm Bureau office, Santa Ana, at 9:30 a.m. All new clothing club leaders and all leaders whose girls are ready to commence the fourth phase are scheduled to meet with Miss Mills.

SELL BREA CAFE

BREA, Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kiger, who for the past nearly two years have been conducting the Wild Cat cafe here, have sold their business to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glade, recently of Los Angeles. The new proprietors took possession today. Mr. and Mrs. Kiger are undecided just what line of endeavor they will take up but for the present they are enjoying a much needed vacation.

WHY DON'T YOU RIDE SOMEBODY ELSE FOR A CHANGE?

Jangled nerves can lose a man his job

One of the dangers of jangled nerves is that the victim is often not aware of his own condition:
Jangled nerves can betray us into sharp retorts that not only hurt others—but ourselves as well.
If you find yourself working under pressure—if you have any worries on your mind—then watch your nerves.
Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

CAMELS—THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

How are YOUR nerves?
TEST No. 3

How many dots can you make on a sheet of paper in 10 seconds? Here is one of the most revealing of all tests used by a famous university. An excellent score is 100. Use sharp, hard pencil.

SMOKES

Another tobacco problem is confronting the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

No sooner do they get the situation in the bright belt of North Carolina and adjoining states fairly well ironed out than up pops a smoke screen in the burley fields of Kentucky simply crying to be whiffed away.

AAA (or AGRA, to defer to the Automobile association), is going to have to work fast if the Blue Grass farmers are to get relief.

The first of December the current crop is dumped on the market. Approximately 400,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco are in sight. Unfortunately the manufacturers can use only about 300,000,000 pounds and there is no market for export.

By simple arithmetic this leaves 100,000,000 pounds hanging in the air. And surpluses always drive prices down to the starvation level.

Around 200,000 growers are affected.

INHALING

A plan is in the making to get over this hump. It will require pretty near 100 per cent support from the growers themselves. Still being incubated and nourished it is about as follows:

The Administration will get a marketing agreement out of the big companies to take as much as possible at a given price—say 15 to 17 cents a pound.

Then a Federal purchasing agency will be created to inhale the remainder at the same price just as cotton was absorbed.

WAY OUT

But no farmer could sell his surplus to the government agency until he had signed a two-year agreement to reduce his acreage somewhere in the neighborhood of 36 to 35 per cent.

To induce the grower to sign such an agreement it is suggested a $3 1-3 per cent tax be imposed on the sale of all burley tobacco in the open market. Those who had agreed to acreage reduction would get a warehouse receipt for one-third of their tobacco in lieu of paying the tax; those who hadn't would not only two-thirds on their crop and be forced to pay the tax in cash.

These warehouse certificates, by arrangement, would be discountable up to a certain per cent at local banks. The grower still would own a receipt for tobacco salable next year at a set price.

Proponents of this plan believe it would open the burley grower's eyes to the absolute need of reducing acreage the next two years and yet permit him to sell off this year's crop at a fair price.

Students of the situation predict that unless some scheme is adopted next December will witness a repetition in Kentucky of North Carolina's recent troubles. Markets will be flooded, prices will be down, and if it becomes necessary to close the markets, as was done in North Carolina, many would be thrown out of work.

James Stone, former Chairman of the Federal Farm Board and representative of the Kentucky Growers' Pool, has presented a plan pointed in this general direction. It doesn't go as far.

In any event, the boys down in the Agricultural Department are hustling. They only have about seven weeks to whip an agreement into shape.

GREENBACKS
Listen for President Roosevelt on your radio in the near future. He is about ready to make aerial report No. 3 on his stewardship. This one should be a honey.

There is tall talk going the rounds about what the Administration is and is not going to do. F. D. is the ideal person to straighten these questions out.

Some of those close to the inside are guessing the President won't give the country a little A-B-C lecture on inflation and what its various forms would mean to the man in the street.

People have been living with the word "inflation" for months now. Very few know actually what it means or what would happen if any of the various forms were applied to the country. Many shouting loudest to have the printing presses turned on probably would be the first ones hurt by a flood of unbacked greenbacks, for instance.

UNFREEZE

Also the Administration is shaping up a scheme to unfreeze some four or five billion dollars of the public's personal money now stored away in closed banks.

A word of enlightenment on this prospect is becoming a political necessity.

A third topic of vital importance to millions concerns Federal relief plans for the coming winter.

GARGLE

This column recently trod unwittingly on the tender toes of a lot of neighborhood druggists by mentioning a mouth wash which costs five cents to manufacture and retails for around a dollar.

The mention was made in connection with a discussion of the pending retail code. Apparently it read as if the druggists were reaping the huge profits. Such is not the case and was not intended.

It still remains true that the gargle, made from a U. S. pharmaceutical formula, costs only a few cents to manufacture. Millions are spent in putting over the particular trade name used. The product wholesales to the druggists for about 71 cents a bottle.

Out hat is off to those gentlemen of the pharmacy who wrote in and to those who didn't.

NOTES

Credit Dr. Chester Tolls, of the Bureau of Fisheries, with one of the most unusual jobs. . . . He feeds fish oil to white rats daily.

. . . . An effort is being made to find a substitute for cod liver oil and the idea is to discover which substitutes contain the proper vitamins to make the rats happy.

. . . . Did you know Al Smith has a person of his own choosing in the Roosevelt Cabinet. . . . Madame Secretary of Labor Perkins first was picked for a New York State job when Al was Governor. . . . She carried over when Mr. Roosevelt went to Albany and Al takes great pride in her progress.

NEW YORK

By James McMullin

BOSS
Inside New York agrees with the recent prediction in our Washington column that a super super co-ordinator will soon be named to take administrative detail off the President's shoulders and bring about teamwork among the various alphabetical units in Washington.

Bernie Baruch may be willing to accept the job if offered but it is very unlikely that the government would be willing to play Peggotty to his Barkis. Local observers point out that he would be a perfect target for a fractious Congress as a Wall Street monarch and big-time speculator. They can think of no worse choice from the political angle. It's a safe gamble that no one with a speculator's background is in line

PRECEDENT
Wall Street is one-third amused and two-thirds annoyed at John D. Rockefeller's insistence on elimination of the profit motive in the liquor business. "How odd that he of all people should turn socialist!" They ask what's to prevent the same principle being applied to the oil industry once the precedent is established and what's the use of putting ideas in people's heads?

ANNOUNCED
Wall Street brokers are plenty irked at the Internal Revenue Department. The new income tax quiz requires the brokers to compile a detailed list of their transaction with their customers over a four-year period.

Is it because they are afraid some of their clients will get irked? Not at all.

What annoys them is the pile of extra work they have to do at their own expense. They think the government might at least have sent its own auditors. But their indignation is not noisy because they wouldn't for the world start an argument with the Federal authorities now. Not with the shadow of regulation just around the corner.

DEBTS

The British Debt Commission might as well stick to sociable tea drinking for a while at least. Informed New Yorkers say it has no chance whatever of getting anywhere until we decide on a definite monetary policy and even then the outlook for an agreement isn't so good.

Join Bull's delegates would be jolly well pleased if we accepted a small lump settlement or agreed to a series of minute token payments. We are a likely to do either as we are to offer California to the Japanese. Hopes for a deal on stabilization continue very vague.

INSURED

The National City Bank wouldn't have cared much if the Cubans had blasted the Hotel Nacional in Havana right off the map while they were at it. The hotel is insured by a British company against every conceivable kind of damage—including damage by revolution. Copyright, 1933, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Donald Arrowsmith, of Baldwin Park, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips recently.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Conaway were Mrs. Myrtle Robinson, of Los Angeles; John Archias, of Brawley, and Mr. and Mrs. George House, of Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wohosky have purchased a stucco house in Sunnyside Gardens from A. J. Kelley and will move here from Long Beach soon. The house has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williams, who will move into the George Bahlender residence on Dorothy street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvol Aabel spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arrowsmith in Baldwin Park.

Mrs. A. W. Conaway had as guests on Wednesday for luncheon, Mrs. Mabel Rosenberger and mother, of Redondo Beach.

for any post which can be easily sniped at.

New York rather fancies the chances—without having any positive information—of Newton D. Baker for the job. His war record would stand in his favor.

SUNSET

There are persistent reports on the inside that General Johnson's sun is setting. New Yorkers with high grade Washington contacts believe he will probably be replaced before long. He is blamed for the excessive ballyhoo which has boomeranged on NRA and his aggressiveness has made enemies in quarters that hurt.

His row with Richberg about telling the steel companies they didn't have to sign up for the "check-off" system for their coal mines didn't help. Insiders here say the mistake was not Richberg's and add that he can prove his case if it comes to a showdown. Picking a fight with Richberg is not recommended as a prescription for keeping politically healthy.

Another straw that New York thinks is significant. The General called on the President during the latter's visit here. He was kept cooling his heels for an hour while Woodin and Harrison held the fort. Harrison is the Governor of the New York Federal Reserve Bank. He has sat in on a lot of conferences lately for a person (supposedly) non grata.

SHUDDERS

Local Tories shudder a bit when they think about the government's intervention on steel rail prices. They say it virtually places the steel industry in a category of Public utilities so far as regulation is concerned, and if they can do that to steel why not to all industry? Shades of rugged individualism!

CLAWS

Don't be surprised if the Blue Eagle gives his claws some exercise in the next few weeks. What's more he is likely to pick out shining marks. Large corporations in the steel and oil industries which signed codes but haven't gone through the formality of living up to them will feel the scratches.

Code violations have ceased to be a joke and can no longer be attributed to misunderstanding or good intentions gone wrong. Some of them have been pretty brazen. The time has come when NRA must either prove its authority or admit that chiselers will be allowed to get away with anything. The idea is that if a few large double-crossers can be brought to time (Ford isn't in this category because he hasn't violated the code even if he hasn't signed it) it will scare hundreds of small fry into compliance without the necessity for elaborate action.

PRECEDENT

"How odd that he of all people should turn socialist!" "Mother--The Crowd Wants to Come Over Here to Night"

Ten-year-old Robert is all aglow! His home is the one his crowd of playmates prefers—since the Clow Gasteam radiators have been put in.

"Other houses seem like Eskimo igloos on winter nights—they are so cold," said Bob. "Please Mother, may they come over here?"

Of course, Bob's mother was glad to have them. Any mother would a little bit prefer to have her youngsters at home in the evening where she can keep a watchful eye on them.

CONDITIONS IN EAST CITED AT OLIVE SESSION

OLIVE, Oct. 11.—Lutheran pastors met in conference at St. Paul's church Tuesday. Papers were presented by the Rev. A. H. Heisermann and William Ruff. The Rev. G. A. Webbeking reported on mission work in the Southern California district. The Rev. Theo. Schoessow, of Los Angeles, reported on work in the C. C. camps.

The November meeting of the local conference was cancelled since the pastors are required to attend the Sierra-Pacific conference in Alhambra October 31 to November 2.

The Rev. A. H. Heisermann, who made an extended auto tour through the east this summer, extending as far as Pennsylvania, stated that conditions in the industrial centers are improving. He said: "The law abolishing child labor has been a distinct help to the people. In one factory a child, working for $3.50 per week, was dismissed and his father employed at the same machine for $12.50 per week. I found church conditions in the east much worse than here in Southern California as regards finances."

The following pastors were in attendance: M. H. Tietjen, W. J. Lankow, William Ruff, O. Skov, H. A. Heisermann, H. G. Schmeider, A. M. Wyneken, H. B. Tietjen, E. H. Kredt, A. C. Bode, C. Damschroeder, Herbert Michels, A. G. Webbeking, H. G. Hillmer, Theo. Schoessow and Mr. Rumsey, of San Diego.

Boys' 4-H Club Meets Saturday

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—Boys of the West Orange 4-H club, under the leadership of H. J. Hinrichs, are to have a business meeting Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Orange Legion hall. Raymond Hull, president, will be in charge of the business meeting.

WORK OF GIRL RESERVES IN ORANGE DISTRICT OUTLINED AS Y. W. C. A. BOARD CONVENES

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—At a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board yesterday in the home of Mrs. Margaret Scott, North Orange street, a survey of Girl Reserve work was given by Miss Lavinia Compton, "Y" secretary. Miss Ethel V. Walker assisted Mrs. Scott as hostess at the tea hour. Mrs. A. Haven Smith presided, and it was announced that the president of the group, Mrs. F. M. Gullick, who has been in the east for the past two months, will return to Orange October 18.

Another announcement of interest was that of a tea to be held October 25 at the Orange Woman's clubhouse. Miss Josephine Seaman, president of the California State Federation of Women's clubs, will be the speaker. The tea will be at 2 p. m. Mrs. Walter Kogler will be in charge.

Miss Compton revealed that the Girl Reserves of Villa Park had effected an organization under the direction of Mrs. George Kampe and Miss Dorothy Bartley. The sixth grade group will study the Girl Reserve code as their year's project, and pictures appropriate to this subject are to be placed in notebooks as a part of the hand craft work to be done. The group meets Monday afternoons in the Girl Reserve room at the high school, it was stated.

Activities of the seventh grade group will be centered around an international theme, Miss Compton said. Mrs. Henry Joost is the advisor, and contacts are to be made with girls of other counties. A Halloween party will be held in the home of Julianna Brandon. It is planned.

The eighth grade girls, according to the report, are planning a ping-pong contest and will also play baseball, with Norma Craft as the team captain. The group spent the past week-end at Camp Emma Otis with Mrs. Carl Goode, Miss Compton and Miss Pauline Williams. A taffy pull will be staged in the near future.

The freshmen Girl Reserves were newly organized the past week, with Mary Spennetta as president, Ruth Eilen as vice president, Betty Brewer, secretary, and Lucille Gates, treasurer. Miss Pauline Snodgrass and Miss Clara Ana, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Breen,

SECTION HOLDS LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE PARTY

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—Cards and a social afternoon marked the regular meeting of the Second Economics section of the Orange Woman's club yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. V. D. Johnson, who with Mrs. A. W. Fullerton, Mrs. H. A. Coburn and Mrs. Henry Terry was hostess to the group. A covered dish luncheon was served and table appointments carried out an autumn motif.

Two new members were added to the list of members recently. Mrs. A. D. Adair, of Santa Ana, and Mrs. W. H. Heath. At the bridge game in the afternoon, high score was made by Mrs. Anna Elmer, second high by Mrs. E. S. Ross and Mrs. Ross Harlan was consolated. Two guests were present, Mrs. Ross Harlan and Mrs. Byron Fletcher. The next meeting of the group will be held in the home of Mrs. Nellie Ainsworth. Members present were Mesdames Nellie Ainsworth, C. C. Bonebrake, F. A. Blake, G. M. Bartley, H. A. Coburn, F. C. Drumm, N. T. Edwards, Anna Elmer, A. W. Fullerton, John Hirst, V. D. Johnson, J. T. Postpone Meeting Of Church Board

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—The meeting of the church school board of the First Methodist church will be held November 12. The meetings are held monthly and this month's session was postponed in order to avoid conflict with the leadership training school. A cabinet session of officers is to be held some time this month.

Long Beach; Mrs. Mae Grimes, of Segundo; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beckman, Mrs. Fluida Compton and Delmer Cully, of Orange.

Mrs. Newell Moore Hostess To Club

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Newell Moore, of Garden Grove, entertained members of the Tuesday Evening Sewing club in her home last night. The time was spent at needlework and chat and the hostess served dainty refreshments on individual trays, stressing a seasonal note of orange and yellow in her appointments and in the flowers which decked the home. The next meeting of the group will be held in the home of Mrs. Neleta Wolfe.

Those sharing the pleasant evening were Mrs. Ross Harlan, Mrs. Byron Fletcher, Mrs. Glenn Beck, Mrs. E. J. O'Donnell, Mrs. Robert Robinson, Mrs. Dayton Dickey, Mrs. Neleta Wolfe, Mrs. Clayton Perrin, Mrs. Franklin H. Minck and the hostess, Mrs. Moore.

HOLD FUNERAL OF MRS. AMELIA PISTER

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—Funeral services for Mrs. Amelia Pister, 80, who passed away at the family home on North Tustin street, Saturday, were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the C. W. Coffey funeral chapel.

Dr. Robert Burns McAulay, pastor of First Presbyterian church, officiated, with the assistance of the Rev. M. L. Pearson. Mrs. Ethel Clark sang "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me," with Otis Ingle playing organ accompaniment.

Pallbearers were Otto Linnert, H. L. Haynes, George Ryan, William Knuth Jr., T. H. Elijah and C. E. Waller. Entombment was in Fairhaven mausoleum.

Mrs. Pister had lived in Orange since 1909, coming here from Abington, Ill. She had membership in First Presbyterian church. She passed away after a five years' illness.

Surviving Mrs. Pister are three sons and four daughters, Edwin L. Pister, Stockton; Frank Pister, Olive; Carl A. Pister and the Misses Emelia, Kate and Nellie Pister and Mrs. L. F. Robinson, all of Orange.

GRADE SCHOOL ORCHESTRA TO BE ORGANIZED

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—J. D. Matthews, of Santa Ana, has been selected to organize a beginners' orchestra in the Orange grade schools. Approximately 15 children were enrolled yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Matthews met with parents of intermediate school children, interested in the movement.

The first rehearsal is scheduled for October 19 at 3:30 o'clock at the intermediate school. All parents of children of this age who are interested in music are urged to be present at this meeting. A small charge is made for each rehearsal, it is announced.

REBEKAH GROUP IN MONTHLY MEETING

ORANGE, Oct. 11.—Veteran Rebekahs held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon as guests of Mrs. D. P. Crawford and Mrs. Ethel Clubb in the Crawford home, 264 North Glassell street. Plans were made for the next meeting, to be held November 14 with Mrs. Esther Cole in Arlington.

The hostess, with the assistance of Mrs. Crawford's daughter, Mrs. W. H. Palmer, served refreshments on individual trays at the close of the afternoon. Dahlias were used in decorating.

A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Lela Jacobs, of Lancaster. Members present, other than Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Clubb, were Mesdames Esther Cole, Jennie Brown, Elsie Gillingly, Retha Hart, Alma Coffey, Della Prince, Nina Dale, Nettie Todhunter, Ida Davis, Edith Kessel, Eva Dewey, Adelle Lucy, Effie Winterowd, Elizabeth Meats, Lucy Richards, Ida Campbell, Anna Christensen and Laura Bowen.

BROCK TO MAKE QUARANTINE STUDY IN EAST

State Director of Agriculture A. Brock, former Santa Ana resident, left Sacramento today for the East on an important agricultural mission that will keep him in the East until late in October.

While in the east Brock will hold discussions with federal officials concerning California's cooperative agreements with the federal department of agriculture. Brock is expected to return to California by way of New Orleans and while in the south probably will spend some time in Florida studying the campaign being waged by that state against citrus canker.

At a recent conference of the citrus department of the California Farm Bureau Federation a resolution introduced by Holmes Bishop, chairman of the citrus department of the Orange County

Farm Bureau, urged Brock to maintain the present citrus canker and melon quarantine until such time as there may be found some other means of keeping out pests regarded as dangerous.

The same resolution also expressed the group of having entire confidence in Brock. There was one opposing vote cast against the resolution which, in asking for maintenance of the quarantine recognized that the state has been ravaged by pests in past years and that the danger impends of new pests being introduced.

During the closing session H. J. Ryan, agricultural commissioner for Los Angeles county, discussed the situation as it exists with respect to the quarantine maintained against citrus canker and melon.

The law, he pointed out, must be the foundation for any quarantine; it must be founded on such conditions as will enable the courts to uphold it. The biological and legal sides must be correlated, there must be an actual menace, he said. He said that melon had not been found to have done any damage in California, and no citrus canker had been found in Florida since 1926.

ELECTION SLATED FOR FARM CENTER

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 11.—Election of officers for the Garden Grove Farm center will be a feature of the meeting to be held Thursday evening at the Women's clubhouse at 7:30 o'clock, according to announcement made by Ralph Chaffee, program chairman. A number of important matters will be discussed briefly. The meeting will close promptly at 9:30 o'clock, it is announced.

Ralph McFadden, president of the Orange county farm bureau, will talk on activities of the farm bureau and tell what the farm bureau is doing for the farmers of Orange county. Jack Crill, director from Garden Grove, and also a state director, will give a report of the directors' meeting held in Santa Ana recently and give a short resume of his trip east.

Floyd Younger will give a short report of his trip with the 4-H club to Davis, after which Mrs. W. O. Broady will report for the home department of the farm center. Community singing will be led by D. S. Jordan.

An oyster stew supper will be served by Mrs. E. A. Wakeham, Mrs. J. O. Arkley and Mrs. Ralph Chaffee.

Beta Chi Group In Card Contest

LA HABRA, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Ethel Sanford, of Whittier, was hostess Monday evening to the Beta Chi sorority and entertained the members with a bridge party. Prizes were given to Martha Iverson and Dorothy Pickup, while Julia Jewett was the birthday honoree for the month.

Plans were made for a contest on scores, the members being divided into three groups. The group having the lowest scores between now and Christmas will entertain the other members of the club with a Christmas party.

Miss Helen Weldon, of Sacramento, was a guest and members present were Miss Marguerite Williams, Martha Iverson, Naomi Granger and Mrs. Grover Spray, of La Habra; Thelma Wachtel, Ethel Sanford, and Dorothy Pickup, of Whittier; Julia Jewett, Virginia Jewett, Mabel Snyder and Dorothy Little, of Fullerton.

Politically Speaking

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 11.—(UP)—A whirlwind campaign in favor of the great central valley water project, will actually mark the beginning of Governor Rolph's campaign for re-election.

After calling a special election for December 9 to give the people an opportunity to vote on the referendum against the $170,000,000 water project, the governor immediately started plans for a speaking tour which will carry him to almost every county in the state.

The governor will make every effort to get the water plan approved because he sincerely believes it of paramount importance to the state and to his administration.

There is this side, also, Rolph and his advisers feel that the governor's greatest chance for reelection lies in his personal appeal. So the capitol will see very little of the governor for a while.

Incidentally the water fight has brought about some peculiar combinations, the strangest of which is the sight of Senator J. M. Inman, potential candidate for lieutenant governor on an anti-Rolph ticket, lined up with Rolph and Senator Bradford S. Crittenden, Stockton.

Outside of the water problem, with its phases of public ownership of power and unemployment relief, the political picture has possible candidates for the Republican initiative against the sales tax to a head has shown little progress. Should it qualify an attempt to force Rolph to give it special consideration by either arranging for inclusion on the December 19 ballot, or calling another special election, probably will be made. Reports that a recall movement would be instituted if Rolph refused to take some such action have received scant consideration.

When the governor included Fred E. Stewart, state equalization board member, on his list of possible candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, it was rather expected that Stewart would consider himself too busy with the sales tax and issue a denial. But he refused to either affirm or deny the report.

Other candidates are virtually marking time, preferring to wait until spring when such problems as water and taxation and deficits will have taken a more definite position in relation to what promises to be one of the state's exciting political years. Along in March the big guns will begin to boom in earnest.

Incidentally a special session of the legislature early next year is a strong possibility. The deficit amounts to $41,600,000 and is growing steadily as revenues decrease. The income of the steam railroads on which the state collects a gross receipts tax, for instance, is 17 per cent below that of last year.

COUNTY LEGION
WOMEN INSTALL
NEW OFFICERS

With approximately 125 officers, delegates, and alternates present, the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary County Council was held yesterday in the Knights of Pythias hall, with the outgoing president, Mrs. Enid Wilson, of Tustin, presiding.

Following a luncheon served at noon in the dining hall by the Tustin unit, the annual election and installation of officers for the ensuing year was conducted in the lodge room. Mrs. Marjory Peabody, of La Habra, was chosen to serve as president. Others elected were Mrs. Helen Goff, of Placentia, vice-president; Mrs. Fannie M. Reeves, of Santa Ana, chaplain; Mrs. Ruth Jella, of Santa Ana, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Alberta Timm, of Newport Beach, marshal; Mrs. Hazel Vigor, of Tustin, musician; Mrs. Marian Matthews, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Violet Webster, Costa Mesa; and Mrs. Florence Smith, of Anaheim, executive board.

The new officers were installed by Mrs. Effie Oplinger, of Arlington, twenty-first district president, who was assisted by the installing team, composed of Mesdames Enid Wilson, Mary Criesman, Ida Rameriz, Fannie M. Reeves, Lillian Thorpe and Hilda Riehl.

Preceding the election and installation ceremonies, monthly and yearly reports were given by the presidents of the 17 county auxiliary units, the chairmen of the various committees, and by the secretary and treasurer of the county council, Mrs. Blanche Marks, of Santa Ana. Short talks were made by the following special guests: Mrs. Florence Smith, of Anaheim, fifth area president; Mrs. Effie Oplinger, of Arlington, twenty-first district president; Mrs. Marian Matthews, 21st district vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. Blanche Young, of Tustin, 21st district child welfare chairman, and Mrs. Carrie W. Jordan, of San Bernardino, president of the San Bernardino and Riverside Inter-county Council.

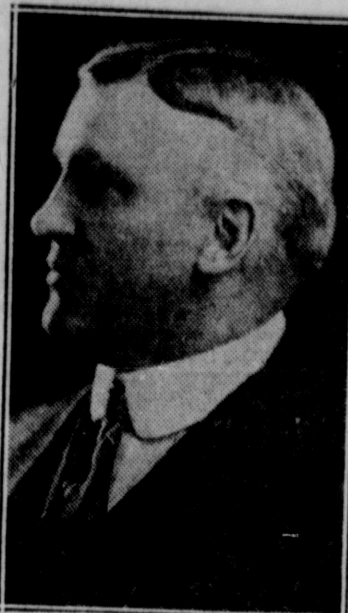

It was voted that the question of a parliamentary law class be tabled and be the first order of business of new delegates at the next county council meeting.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE RESIGNS

WESTMINSTER, Oct. 11.—The resignation of Matt Cochran, trustee from the Barber City division of Westminster school district, was accepted at the school board meeting Monday evening by the two remaining directors, Clyde Day and Armand Heil. Necessity for Mr. Cochran's resignation arose through his removal from this school district to Buena Park. The vacancy will be filled by the county superintendent of schools.

HONORED

Major Earl Hawks, below, past commander of the Jack Fisher chapter of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, has been named commander of the fourth district of the organization.

THREE FOURTHS OF ARRESTS ON
BOOZE COUNTS

With a total of 43 arrests made by the police department, during September, 30 of which were on liquor charges, including four drunk drivers, there was $837 collected in fines by the Anaheim police court according to a report made by Judge Frank Tausch last night at the city council meeting. In addition, another section of the report showed 30 tickets were issued for violation of the motor vehicle act.

Chief of Police James S. Boudin reported that the 43 arrests made included 15 drunks, 11 for possession of intoxicating liquor, four for drunk driving, three for other departments, three for traffic warrants, two for picking up trash in alleys, one for non-support of a minor child, one for fictitious check writing, one on suspicion of burglary, one for violation of section 148 C. V. A. and one for violation section 242 of the penal code.

Five automobiles were reported stolen and four were recovered. Thirty-three citations were given for traffic violations. Disposal of the cases brought before Judge Tausch during the month were made in the following manner: 31 paid their fines and were released, nine were committed to the county jail, two were given suspended sentences, two were remanded to the juvenile court and five were felony cases sent to the district attorney.

MAJOR HAWKS
HEADS FOURTH
DISTRICT D. A. V.

As a reward for "faithful and unselfish services" for the past few years in the Jack Fisher chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, Major Earl B. Hawks, past commander of that chapter, has been appointed fourth district commander of the state department, D.A.V.W.V. Hawks will supervise the activities of the D.A.V. organization in Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial and San Diego counties which comprises the fourth district of the state department.

Officers and members of the Jack Fisher chapter were elated in announcing the promotion of Past Commander Hawks and declare they look for a very successful term under his unquestioned capabilities as they remember the splendid work he did with the United States intelligence service both in this country and overseas during the World War.

"His services in veteran affairs since coming to Orange county have been most beneficial, having completed in May this year a very successful year as commander of the Jack Fisher chapter," Harry S. Pickard, post commander, said today.

Hawks will take command on the confirmation of his appointment from state headquarters, after being unanimously acclaimed by the entire district. He will then announce his appointments and outline his program for the year which will include an itinerary of visits to all units in the district.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO SEEK COMPROMISE OF STATE
OIL SUIT AT BEACH FIELD

At the close of a meeting with oil operators held at the Huntington Beach city hall yesterday afternoon, the state legislative committee pledged itself to effect if possible a compromise settlement of the legal controversy over "whipstocking" or slant hole oil well drilling at Huntington Beach.

A meeting was arranged for a lawsuit and to recommend such a settlement to the governor and the legislature. Lawlor, as representative of the Standard Oil company was asked if the Standard would accept a compromise rather than a lawsuit. Lawlor said he could only speak as to his personal opinion on the matter. He said that the board of directors would have to act on a compromise.

Lawlor further stated that if operators had deliberately crossed the lands of the Standard Oil company to get to the state property, then he would oppose any compromise with such operators. In drilling the wells had drifted across the Standard lands, then that would be a different matter, he asserted. He said that where it was impossible for the state because of an expressed vote of the people in opposition to lease the tide lands, then the state should permit only the owner of adjacent property to drill into the state pool, and that the Standard Oil company was the owner of the adjacent property.

Men Out of Work

Seth Heney of Los Angeles, operator of the tide land permit west of the city, in a reply to Lawlor said that this was no time to advance legal technicalities. He said the president was engaged in an effort through the NRA to provide men with jobs; that this action of the state had deprived more oil workers of a means of preventing actual suffering among their families, than the NRA code in all the oil fields of California had put back to work. He said he could not believe that Americans like himself, which he felt Standard Oil directors and officials to be, would be a party to opposing a compromise that might mean jobs for 2500 to 5000 men.

"America in all its history was never so near a revolution as it is today. We want no violence. But you see men homeless and starving, their families on charity, the whole nation engaged in an effort to find work for idle men, and then talk of lawsuits and litigation as to who shall drill the wells. It is a time, gentlemen of the legislature, to present to state authorities the possibility of compromise. The oil operators will welcome a compromise. They will cooperate in every way to bring about a change in conditions that will put these men back to work."

Questioned by the committee Heney said he felt the operators would pay the state five per cent. of the amount of royalty charged on tideland leases elsewhere in the state. C. C. Coulter, secretary of the Oil Workers Union, made an appeal to the committee for a compromise to put the men back to work in the field. He said that thousands of men in Long Beach and Huntington Beach were thrown out of work by the lawsuit, for which they were in no sense to blame. He urged that some plan be devised by which the men might have the jobs they so badly needed, even if only for a brief period. Cecil Rood, who with his associates discovered the new sand, or at least proved it could be reached by town lot wells, in a frank statement to the committee, said: "I am part owner of the Cicerro, Maceroo, Shineroo, and Vanceroo wells. We want to see the work go on. We stand ready to aid this committee in any possible way that may bring about renewed activity." In answer to questions by the committee, Rood said "We used no whipstock. We did not have money enough to buy a whipstock. We did not tilt the rotary table."

Shine on Drill Pipe

"We see drill pipe shine on the outside and we know that the holes are crooked. I see a lot of shiny drill pipe coming out of Standard Oil wells. I will admit that I know that with our wells we got on the gravel trail, because I am telling you we got plenty of gravel."

The proposal to name a committee with power to make a compromise for the operators was made by Sam Brooks, oil operator, who resides at Anaheim. The operators will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Huntington Beach city hall to name their committee. Lawlor filed with the legislative committee the much discussed affidavits of Engineer Bob Garrison and the Eastman oil well survey statements.

Ray Lambert of Santa Ana, said the oil industry paid 47 per cent of the taxes of Orange county. John Whitfield of Huntington Beach said that his property here was rented, after being vacant for months. The supply house representatives told of the volume of business they had lost by the closing down of the wells. Joe Rogers stating that his firm had $250,000 worth of business contracted for and cancelled since the state started the lawsuit.

All of the speakers stressed the economic loss and the fact that there was no way by which they could pay the state a royalty. This latter phase of the discourse was brought about when Lawlor said the state had never been offered any royalty although its tide lands were being drained. Lawlor further said that if his company, the Standard, had been taking any oil from anybody they would promptly pay for it.

MASONS HEAR TALK

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 11.—W. S. Houseworth of Fullerton was the principal speaker at the meeting of Garden Grove lodge No. 586, F. and A. M., in the Orange Masonic temple Monday evening. He spoke on American desert, telling particularly about the coloring and writing on the rocks.

A 5 o'clock dinner was served by the following committee: Mrs. L. L. Trickey, chairman, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Arvol Anbel, Mrs. A. Anbel, Mrs. C. W. Ferguson and Mrs. R. A. Rossolot.

Third Grade
Gas Price
Drops 1 Cent

Prices on third structure gasoline today had been reduced from 16 1-2 cents to 15 1-2 in many of the independent stations, while major stations were attempting to maintain their regular price of 17 cents for the third rate fuel.

Service station operators believe that all stations will be selling the cheaper gasoline for 15 1-2 cents before long. Prices of regular and ethyl grade gasolines were not affected by the third structure adjustments, but fear was expressed in oil circles that the entire price structure will be affected shortly.

The reduction in prices here came as a result of a readjustment downward in Los Angeles retail gasoline prices.

CHEST GIFTS
AT LOW PER CAPITA LEVEL

"Last year Santa Ana contributed but $1.20 per capita in support of the Community Chest, and statistics show that to be about the low mark in the United States," J. S. Smart, executive advisor of the 1933 Santa Ana Community Chest campaign, said today, in discussing the level of giving here.

"In Los Angeles the per capita gifts are double that. In several smaller California cities they beat us by a considerable margin," Smart said. "This is not a criticism of those who give. Giving must be more widespread and those who pledge to the Community Chest must consider how much they give per month. A pledge of $10 is less than $1 per month for the support of eight kinds of service, all worthy."

"Seventy-five per cent of us still have the money to get, or to do what we seriously desire. Santa Ana should have the spirit to come out of the $1.20 doldrums," Smart concluded.

SOCIETY DRAMA TO BE GIVEN BY
S. A. PLAYERS

Following the decision of the play reading committee of Santa Ana Community Players' association to present Rachel Crothers' successful society drama, "Let Us Be Gay," as the opening production of the winter season, Gladys Simpson Shafer, director, today called a tryout for roles in the play, for Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in The Barn, Mabury street, just south of East Fourth street.

The play, a sophisticated but sparkling drama of the same general type as "The Last of Mrs. Cheyne," one of last season's successes for the Players, will require five women and seven men to fill its parts.

Mrs. Harvey Smith (Mona Summers Smith) as chairman of the play reading committee selecting this year's productions for the Community Players, has as her committee members, Mrs. Terry E. Stephenson, Major F. L. Carrier and Mrs. Marshall Har-nols.

Close Friends Share Reunion With Family

Brought together for a happy reunion, relatives and close friends of Mrs. M. A. Walkinshaw and daughter, Miss Margaret Walkinshaw took part in a noon-day luncheon served Saturday when the two were hostesses in their home, 438 South Broadway.

The affair was occasioned by the visit here of Mrs. Walkinshaw's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Walkinshaw of Superior, Nebr., and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCum of the same city. They plan to leave soon for their homes.

Others participating in the enjoyable afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Tippen, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Allen, Mr. and Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Scott Torrens, Mrs. Joe Thompson and the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Edgar, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. John McIntire, Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. John Walkinshaw and young son, William, of Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Torrens and Mrs. Thompson are former residents of Superior, Nebr.

Newlywed Couple To Make Home Here

Wedded Saturday evening, October 7, in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Christiana Anderson, North Main street, Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Davis are expected to return home this week from their honeymoon trip and establish their residence in this city.

Mrs. Davis, formerly, Miss Sylvia Anderson, made an attractive bride in a pretty blue gown with matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of rich red roses. Her sister, Mrs. Pauline Hawthorne, was matron of honor, and Marion C. Pugh, close friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Davis formerly lived in San Diego.

Only members of the immediate family were present for the quiet ceremony, read by the Rev. A. E. Kelly, pastor of United Presbyterian church.

Refreshments were served from a large table lighted with white tapers and centered with a pink and white wedding cake which was cut by the bride.

Rushes of Sorority Complimented at Smart Affair

Pi Theta Chi sorority members, entertaining Sunday afternoon at a formal rush tea, were privileged through one of their number, Miss Lucille Crawford, to receive their guests in the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Prentice, 1660 East First street.

The home, one of spacious rooms and handsome furnishings, lent itself admirably to such a function, and its charms were enhanced by the use of quantities of yellow gladioli blossoms combined with ferns to suggest the sorority colors of yellow and green. Add to this, the cheerful fire crackling companionably on a wide hearth and a group of young women, lovely in formal afternoon gowns, and a pleasant picture may be gained of the intriguing scene.

Arriving guests were greeted by Miss Ruth Souder, wearing a ruffled pale blue tulle gown; Miss Winifred Schneider in severely simple white crepe, and Miss Dorothy Johnson in white organdy and blue tulle. As each guest passed the receiving line she received a spray of yellow gladioli and gypsophila.

Music added its charm, with two guest artists presenting the continuous program. John Henderson played a succession of piano solos, and Miss Florence Martin, well known radio star of the NBC network, the houseguest of Miss Mary Alice White, 174 South Lyon street, sang a series of request numbers.

For the tea hour, Mrs. Prentice and Miss Lorene Shippe, advisor of the sorority, presided at the tea table with its artistic arrangement of giant dahlias and quaint little pom-pom blooms, all in tones of yellow, and its green and yellow tapers flanking the plates of dainties. Mrs. J. A. Crawford assisted in serving.

Hostesses at this delightful party were the Misses Lucille Crawford, Mary Alice White, Mary Louise Niedergall, Betty Niedergall, Ruth Souder, Winifred Schneider, Grace Middlebrook, Dorothy Johnson and their advisor, Miss Lorene Shippe. Guests complimented were the Misses Betty Garroway, Martha Tadlock, Helen Tyner, Violet Johnson, the Pollock, Martha Humes, Charlene Kyte and Rowena Blocker.

Faculty Member Talks At Opening Chapter Session

Opening their activities for the year with a program on which L. L. Beaman of Santa Ana Junior college faculty was speaker, members of Santa Ana chapter, D. A. R. were guests Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch, 725 Mortimer street.

Mr. Beaman gave a comprehensive talk on "Our Economic Changes," concluding with an open forum during which varied questions were answered for the group. Mrs. Arthur A. May, vice-regent, was program chairman for the afternoon.

During the business session in charge of Mrs. Henry W. Guthrie, regent, announcement was made of the first Southern California council to be held October 17 in the Woman's clubhouse in South Pasadena. All planning to attend are to notify the regent not later than Friday of this week.

It was announced that a luncheon and dinner are to be held October 14 at International Institute, 435 South Boyle avenue, Los Angeles, in observance of annual International day.

Mrs. Hatch served refreshments with the assistance of a social committee composed of Mesdames E. G. Warner, R. A. Tiernan, W. H. Harrison, M. C. Hoyt, L. B. Armstrong and Clara Chapman. Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Jennie Crawford presided at the tea table.

Tribute was paid Mrs. Frank Phelps Toms, past state regent, who passed away during the summer months.

Pretty Ceremony Read On Anniversary of Wee Kirk

Privileged to be wedded on the fourth anniversary of the dedication of the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Glendale, Miss Isabella Alexander of Glendale and Guy Mead Penland of Santa Ana exchanged vows Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the picturesque little church.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of Central Christian church, Glendale, and was the 1943rd wedding service to take place within the walls of the quaint Wee Kirk.

The bride was lovely in eggshell transparent velvet and rose point lace, worn with tulle veil with cap of rose point. She carried a sheaf of white rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Her father, Robert Alexander, gave her in marriage.

Miss Jean Alexander, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, gowning in turquoise blue French crepe with a tulle toque and matching mitts. Miss Roberta Alexander and Miss Margaret Morrison, wearing identical costumes of pink tulle with matching hats and mitts, were bridesmaids. Their flowers were arranged as old-fashioned nosegays. The three attendants wore historical costumes.

Walter Davidson attended Mr. Penland as best man, and Charles Morrison and Phelps Greffon were ushers.

Alice Harrison Shrader, organist, gave a half hour recital preceding the ceremony.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander, 1504 Bel Air Road, Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Penland left for a honeymoon trip to Carmel, with plans to make their home in Riverside. The bride is a graduate of Pasadena High school and Junior college. Mr. Penland is a graduate of San Bernardino High school and Junior college, and is the son of James Penland of Merced, Calif.

Ebell Section Accords Honor to Charter Member

Accorded special honors at the 23rd anniversary celebration of Ebell Music, Art and Drama section the past week, Mrs. M. T. Phillips, charter member of the group, climaxed the afternoon by presiding during the tea hour. Mrs. Rollo Hays was hostess, receiving guests in her home, 818 South Birch street.

Reminiscent of the early days of the section's activity, when membership was made up almost entirely of the community's prominent musicians and other artists, was the little talk given by Mrs. Phillips at the close of the program.

Honoring the hostess' sister, Mrs. W. Frederick Rusk, of Hollywood, a special guest of the day, Mrs. Charles Brisco sang "Adieu," words and music of which had been written by Mrs. Rusk. Mrs. Brisco sang other songs, with Mrs. W. B. Snow playing accompaniment. Dorothy Hill Pitman gave a dramatic reading, "The Minuet" (Louis Parker) and a group of dialect selections.

Mrs. Phillips was escorted to the dining room to preside over the lace draped table where dainty sandwiches were served to precede the dispensing of the delicious birthday cake which she, as charter member, had provided for the occasion. Tapers rising from silver candlesticks lighted the scene.

Assisting Mrs. Phillips and the hostess at this time were Mesdames B. H. Sharpless, S. H. Finley, F. P. Nickey, Harry Hays and Miss Prebbie Drake.

Mrs. Sherman Stevens was a special guest of the day.

Childhood Pleasures Are Recalled by Party Guests

Reverting to the carefree days of childhood, guests at a recent party given by Mrs. Bernard Snow and Mrs. T. J. Bose in Mrs. Snow's home, 815 South Flower street, entered with gaiety into the series of children's games planned by their hostess as a special compliment to Mrs. Victor Fleming, incentive for the merry affair.

The home was gay with childhood's favorite colors of pink and white, evidenced in the many flowers and especially in a table lighted by pink tapers and piled high with daintily wrapped packages under a swaying umbrella in pastel colors. During the evening Mrs. Fleming was accorded place of honor at the table and had the pleasure of claiming the dainty articles for a layette which the guests had selected for her.

Concluding their hospitality Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Bose served refreshments in which the theme of babyhood was given unique expression. Ice cream and crisp little round cookies were combined to form a perambulator on each individual plate, and other delicacies were in keeping with the theme.

Sharing their hospitality were Mesdames Kenneth Bell, Jesse Miller, John O'Brien, Charles A. Rohrer, Leonard Hodges, Claude J. McDowell, Grace Wilson, R. D. Baker, J. H. Achley, Wayne Jacob, Herbert Haydon, Loren Spencer, Charles Blair, Sam Sines, and the complimented guest, Mrs. Fleming.

Short Talk Follows Ebell Section Luncheon

Eloquent of their newly adopted theme for the year, "Patronage of Home Industry," was the meeting which members of Ebell Fifth Household Economics section held yesterday afternoon in the clubhouse, with F. P. Jayne speaking on California Dates.

The short program followed a luncheon served in the dining room, where baby zinnias were used in decorating. Hostesses were Mrs. George Raymer, Mrs. Clara Richards and Mrs. E. C. J. H. Mrs. Raymer, leader, presided over the business interval.

Mr. Jayne referred to the climate of California valley as being ideally suited to the raising of dates. He added that growers from the oldest date raising country in the world have been coming to the valley to learn more of the successful methods used in producing superior fruit.

Members adjourned to the lounge where all was in readiness for bridge games. Mrs. A. F. Le Gaye received an incense burner for scoring high and Mrs. Anna Towner Ream, a red lacquer tray, second high. Mrs. Tarver Montgomery won a black jardiniere as a surprise award.

Those present other than the hostess group, Mrs. Raymer, Miss Richards and Mrs. Diehl, were Mesdames Anna Towner Ream, Carl Klatt, F. P. Three Santa Ana members, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Jellis and Mrs.

Members of National Sorority Organize Social Group

Plans for an informal organization of Alpha Chi Omega sorority members in this city were advanced yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Robert Mize, a member of the chapter at University of Illinois, entertained at tea in her home, 602 South Ross street.

Alpha Chi Omega colors of scarlet and olive green gave a sparkle and brilliancy to the flowers with which the home was decked, and the use of the sorority crest on place cards for the formal tea menu, was an additional pleasant touch. Tables were charming with their green candles set amidst the vivid flowers.

In effecting the organization at this time, members feel that there may be other Alpha Chi Omegas in the city and its vicinity who would like to identify themselves with the group. All will be welcome to the series of meetings, the next of which will be December 8 with Mrs. William Stauffer and Mrs. Horace Leeling as hostesses.

Accepting the hospitality Monday of Mrs. Mize were Mrs. Horace Leeling of University of Colorado; Mrs. William Stauffer, Mrs. Robert McGill (Whittier) and Miss Revie Hawkins, University of California; Mrs. Arnold Lund, Mrs. Howard Lutz, Miss Constance Cruickshank and Mrs. Clarence McFadden, Berkeley, and Mrs. Nat Naff, University of Nebraska.

After their return by boat, they will spend the remainder of their vacation at Cedar Pines where they have a summer cabin.

Auxiliary to Resume Former Meeting Schedule

Setting November 4 as the date for a benefit party to be held at 8 p. m. in M. W. A. hall, members of the Women's Auxiliary to Santa Ana Typographical union met last night as guests of Mrs. William Lawrence, 1022 Halladay street.

Mrs. J. E. Swanger, president, named Mrs. J. W. Jones chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the party. Mesdames C. E. Fisher, W. H. Fields and William Lawrence were to assist her.

Members voted to resume meetings in accordance with the original schedule, meeting the second Monday evening of each month instead of the second Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Patison, 1705 West Washington avenue, is to be hostess at the next session, November 13 at 7:30 p. m.

During the social hour Mrs. Lawrence served refreshments on individual trays. Flowers arranged throughout the home provided decorations for the occasion.

Members present other than Mrs. Lawrence, were Mesdames: Iren Brakeman, Roy Butler, George W. Duke, J. W. Jones, J. H. Patison, J. W. Parkinson, V. C. Shidler, F. E. Stilwell, J. E. Swanger, C. C. Thrasher, W. H. Fields, William Fitcher, C. E. Fisher and J. V. Smith.

EAT AND GROW SLIM

Dinner

- 1 cup Rice-Tomato Soup
- 1 English mutton chop
- 1 small baked potato
- 3 Tbsp. shoe-string carrots
- Lettuce and apple salad
- Clear tea, no sugar
- Calory total, 435.

Good beef broth, made in quantity and kept in the refrigerator is a grand pinch-hitter at this time of year; make a quick dinner soup by adding some strained tomato and rice to the broth, letting it simmer until the rice is tender.

"English" mutton chops are those very thick chops, sold at a good fat price in high-class restaurants. Young mutton is superb at this season, and very reasonably priced. The loin will cut about a dozen chops, a good inch thick. Pan or oven broil, seasoning highly with salt and pepper, and a dash of garlic and celery salt. Broiling time: 15 minutes.

"Shoe-String" Carrots: Cut peeled carrots in shoe string strips and cook them in water seasoned with salt, sugar and a clove or garlic. When tender, drain, remove the garlic, and reheat in a little butter and 2 Tbsp. of vinegar.

So many families dislike carrots . . . why? I don't know . . . unless maybe they are beloved by horses. You can provide the family with "horse-sense" and a yen for carrots by cooking them in this fashion.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Chocolate Sponge Cake

1 cup sugar

8 egg yolks

1-2 cup cold water

1-4 cups flour

1-4 cup cocoa

1 tsp. vanilla

1-2 tsp. salt.

Contributed recipe.

Our contributor says that this recipe utilizes egg yolks left after the making of an angel food cake.

Beat egg yolks and water until thick and creamy. If you use an electric beater, beat them about five minutes.

Add the sugar after the preliminary beating, stirring it in slowly, while the beating goes on.

Sift the flour, then measure the 1-4 cups, add cocoa and salt and sift four times (to get air in flour). Fold in the prepared flour and vanilla and bake the cake in an ungreased tube cake pan, moderate (325 degrees). Time: 45-50 minutes.

Frost or not, as you like. A quick and delicious frosting would be a butter frosting made with melted butter, a little hot cream, powdered sugar, whipped to a spreading consistency, and flavored with a few drops of peppermint. Peppermint and chocolate are an agreeable flavor combination.

There are close to 2000 calories in this cake, unfrosted. Add 1000 additional calories for frosting. A slice 1 inch thick at edge would have an approximate value of 150 calories (20 slices to the cake).

Thursday: Baked Cottage Ham with Sweet Potatoes.

Late News From Fullerton And Vicinity

DINNER IS HELD BY W. C. T. U. IN CARBON CANYON

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Members of Fullerton Women's Christian Temperance union enjoyed an outing and a picnic dinner Tuesday when they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Culmer at their Carbon canyon home.

After a morning of piecing quilts a picnic dinner was served under the trees. The afternoon session included a business and a devotional meeting. Mrs. Agnes Cooper led the devotional period and Mrs. Ursula Zinke was in charge of the business session. Delegates to the state convention at Hollywood were appointed. The convention is to be at the Hollywood Presbyterian church October 24, 25, 26 and 27. Representatives from Fullerton are to be the president, Mrs. Carrie Ford, Mrs. Laura Gano, Mrs. Emma Wickersheim, Mrs. Eva Ernberger and Mrs. Lena LaRue.

Next meeting will be October 24 with Mrs. Eva Ernberger at her home on 317 East Central avenue. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stone, W. S. Fridd, Mrs. Agnes Cooper, Mrs. Alma Campbell, Mrs. Ursula Zinke, Mrs. Emma Wickersheim, Mrs. Alvina Robinson, Mrs. Ernberger, Mrs. Steward, Mrs. R. E. Peschel, Mrs. Elizabeth Werner, Mrs. Carrie Ford, Mrs. Soucie Hargo, Mrs. George Gano and Mr. and Mrs. Culmer.

'B' TEAM, WHITTIER TO MEET THURSDAY

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—James Roy (Jimmie) Smith's Fullerton Union High school middleweight football team will play the strong Whittier Cardinals here tomorrow afternoon, in the Indians' third game of the current season.

Smith also announced that the Braves would tangle with the Anaheim Colonists here Monday afternoon rather than Tuesday as originally scheduled. The Anaheim game will be the fourth Orange county school on the Braves' 1935 schedule, having beaten Orange, 20 to 0, and Brea-Olinda, 13 to 7, after dropping a 7 to 0 decision with Huntington Beach.

A game with Wallace Detrick's Long Beach Poly Jackrabbits for November 9 has been booked.

1312 Pupils Enrolled In High School

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—The number of students registered at the Fullerton union high school for the period ending yesterday was 1312, according to Miss Edith Morgan of the registration staff.

Although this number does not equal the total of 1365 at the end of the same period last year, it is believed that the difference is due to the formation of the new Valencia high school at Placentia. The enrollment includes the freshman class with 187 boys and 206 girls; sophomore class with 196 boys and 180 girls; junior class with 152 boys and 151 girls; the senior class with 112 boys and 124 girls, and four special students.

In enrollment the girls lead the boys, 661 to 647.

New Members For Journalism Group Of Junior College

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Gamma Delta Upsilon, journalism society of the junior college, met last night in the journalism room to initiate two new members, Verne McCauley, Annual Torch editor, and John Warren Johnson.

Ted Scott, president of the society, presided at the business meeting while new officers were elected. Those attending were Howard Bland, vice president; Dorothy Morris, secretary-treasurer; Jean Moore, Roxie Willis, Katherine Dohm and Nadine Mason, both former members, and Otis LeRoss, advisor.

P. E. O. Group To Convene Tonight

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Chapter HU of the P. E. O. sisterhood is to meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight with Dr. Mary P. Ruenitz at 132 East Amerige avenue in regular session.

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Ann Stanford, editor of the annual Pleides of the Fullerton Union High school, has appointed several more members of her staff. Those on the staff now are Philip Hammond, assistant editor;

YELLOWJACKETS AND INDIANS CLASH OCT. 14

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Arthur L. Nunn's Fullerton District Junior college Yellowjackets make their initial conference start of the current football season here Saturday, when they tackle Art Schaefer's San Bernardino Valley Union Junior college Indians, whom they beat, 12 to 6, in a night game last year.

In holding the strong Santa Monica, 7 to 6, and then trouncing the El Centro Jaycee aggregation, the Indians demonstrated considerable gridiron technique.

With the exception of a few bumps and bruises, the Yellowjackets weathered their preliminary games with the Long Beach Vikings, Pasadena Bulldogs and the Black-Foxe Military academy without injury and will be in the best of shape for their initial conference test.

The strong Los Angeles Cubs, whom Ted Shipkey, former Stanford All-American and Fullerton athlete, is coaching, defeated Santa Monica, 7 to 9; Ventura humbled the defending champions, Pasadena, 10 to 0, and Compton and Santa Monica played a scoreless tie in the opening Western division round. Long Beach, in a non-conference affair, lost a 38 to 6 decision to Bakersfield.

Eastern division teams begin their gridiron rivalry Saturday with Santa Ana, 6 to 0, winners over Pomona college varsity, enjoying a bye while Riverside and Pomona tangle; Chaffey travels to Citrus and San Bernardino comes to this city to crack the ice. While both Riverside and Chaffey are favored to win, the Fullerton-San Bernardino affair is considered a toss-up.

In Western division games, Ventura and Los Angeles, undefeated teams, mix at Los Angeles; Glendale travels to Long Beach and Pasadena goes to Santa Monica while Compton draws a bye.

The Western division standings:

W. L. T. Pct.
Los Angeles 1 0 0 1.000
Ventura 1 0 0 1.000
Santa Monica 0 1 1 .500
Compton 0 1 1 .500
Long Beach 0 0 0 .000
Pasadena 0 1 0 .000
Glendale 0 1 0 .000

ANNUAL VISITATION CAMPAIGN STARTED AT CHURCH MEETING

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—The annual visitation campaign was started last night when members of the Presbyterian church met for dinner at the social hall.

A. C. Terrill, chairman of the church get-together group, was in charge and is serving on a committee with Mrs. Lyman Scheel, Mrs. C. W. Trotter, Miss Margaret Atlas, Miss Minnie E. Morse and Mrs. Klahn, to appoint captains for the two sides of the contest.

The members will divide into East and West divisions, with the division line Malden avenue, and will continue the contest until November 14, when it will close with another dinner at the church.

A humorous skit was presented last night, following a talk by Harry May on the success of the C. C. C. camps. Participating in the skit were Dr. Graham C. Hunter, pastor, and Ernest Von Gruenigen, who, after argument on "When is the Best Time to Plant Pansies," fought a "duel."

DAUGHTERS HOLD SESSION IN BREA

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Daughters of Veterans of tent No. 7, Fullerton, held their regular social meeting in an all-day gathering at the home of Mrs. Jacob Siebenthal in Brea Monday. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon, Mrs. L. C. Moore, of Brea, and Mrs. Cora Houston, of Fullerton, assisting Mrs. Siebenthal. The afternoon was devoted to piecing quilts.

Visitors were Mrs. Hattie Siegfried and Miss Bernina Hilton, of Orange tent No. 54 and Mrs. Margaret M. Cone, of Brea. Others present were Mesdames Maude Meranda, Lucila Cox, Eva Hyde, Effie Willis and her daughter, Dolly, and Miss Elsie Smith, all of Brea; Mrs. Eda Williams, Olinde; Mrs. Leah Housley, Buena Park; Edith Oliver, Margaret Willis, Ota Everett, Maude Thompson, Monte L. Porter, Hazel Smalley, Zilpha Pearson, Mary Robertson, May Harrington, Nettie Vest, Alta Mae Hoff, Anna Meyer, Mabel Moll, Minnie Shea, Meda Gallagher, Mona Tannar, Emma Vest and the Misses Jean and Joan Neff, all of Fullerton. Jean and Joan Neff, twins, are the grand-daughters of Mrs. Nettie Vest and great grand-daughters of Mrs. Emma Vest.

English Club To Elect Thursday

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—The English club of the junior college will meet tomorrow at 3:10 p.m. at the home of Roxie Willis, Alberta street, Anaheim, for the second meeting. Officers are to be elected and plans for the rest of this year are to be discussed, according to R. W. Borst, advisor of the club.

CARDINALS AND INDIANS STAGE GAME ON FRIDAY

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Fullerton Union High school Indians and Whittier Cardinals will stage a football game on Friday afternoon, Fullerton resuming grid relations with the Cardinals after three years.

Records show that the Cardinals and the Indians have met four times. In 1924, when both schools were members of the Coast League, Fullerton won a 34 to 0 verdict. In 1925, Fullerton returned to the Orange county league, but met Whittier in a pre-season contest, winning 12 to 0.

While the teams did not play in 1926, Fullerton took a 20 to 0 decision over the Cardinals in the 1927 season. The Braves took the Southern California Prep title that year.

In 1929, as members of the Football league the teams met again with Fullerton winning, 13 to 6. In these four games, Fullerton teams scored 76 points to the Cardinals' 8.

Coach Donald Cruikshank is worried. His line played mediocre football at San Bernardino last week, when the Indians were outplayed throughout the greater part of the contest. Cruikshank also sees an air of indifference in this year's squad.

Howard Vales, junior, reserve, resolved a fractured leg in blocking practice and will be out the remainder of the season.

Gordon Jahr, blonde blocking half, who received a slide injury in the Chaffey contest, is expected to replace Francis Lehm, inside half, Friday. Sam Miller, fullback, has been looking good on both offense and defense. He has been the Indians' outstanding ball packer.

MARY HART HOSTESS

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Mary Hart was hostess to a group of women of the Fullerton District Junior college at her home on La Habra Heights. After a buffet supper the guests spent the evening playing games.

Those present were Dorothy Finley, Lois Reeves, Lillian Janeway, Flora Honeyman, Dawn Marey, Mary Sutton, Ethel Hart, Harriett Addins, Helen Crooks, Margaret Aquino, Katherine Baldwin, and Dorothy Bennett.

Royal Neighbors' District Meeting Set For Oct. 24

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Eunice Manuel and Mrs. Mabel Ellis were birthday honorees at the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors lodge at Odd Fellows hall Tuesday night. Dora Riley, orator, presided.

Plans for future meetings included announcement of a district session of the Orange county camps October 24 at the hall, where initiation will be held. A dessert luncheon is to be served and cards played October 16 at the home of Mrs. Marie McElhaney on Jacaranda.

A social and public dinner have been set for November 7 at the hall, with Mrs. Della Hughes, Mrs. Winifred Bradford and Mrs. Mayme Kerin in charge.

PEP ASSEMBLY IS HELD AT COLLEGE

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—A pep assembly for the football game Saturday was held yesterday by the junior college in the new auditorium. Jimmie Ferguson presiding, Bill Russell and Ed DeRemer led the students in yells and Barbara Dawson and Elizabeth Thompson led the singing.

Benjamin Edwards, music instructor, told the group the best way to yell and gave a demonstration. Gil Hemmer, former student, gave a short talk.

Before the rally, Mrs. Harold Nielson played several numbers on the organ.

NIGHTWALKERS HOLD PROGRAM, OPEN MEETING

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—The first open meeting of the Nightwalkers, Fullerton District Junior college drama organization, was held last night in the new auditorium. Students interested in dramatics were guests at the meeting.

The vaudeville program of the evening planned by Vivian Reeves, consisted of the following: Duet by the Lance twins, Gerald and Bob; dance number by Lynwood Young of the Orange County School of Fine Arts; a skit, "He, She, and It," presented by Marjorie Flynn, Margaret Hart, and Clarence Stull; reading by Madge Middleton; pantomime by Vivian Reeves and reading by Marjorie Carlisle.

After the program, refreshments were served.

Mexican Church Cleared Of Debt

FULLERTON, Oct. 11.—Debts on the Mexican Mission church were cleared Tuesday night, when little Alfonso Dominguez, Jr., son of the pastor, struck a match to bills following a dinner at the church. Participating in the dinner were 100 guests, Mrs. D. A. Matta, wife of the first pastor of the church, cooked the tamales for the dinner.

Among the visiting pastors for the dinner and ceremony were the Rev. Mr. Matta, the Rev. George Tinsley and the Rev. E. Dow Hoffman.

The program included a solo by Arthur Vargas, accompanied at the piano by John Hayes, and a duet by Vargas and Hayes.

The Register welcomes news and Fullerton residents are urged to telephone or bring their items to the branch office, located at 246 West Commonwealth avenue. The phone number is Fullerton 615W.

Participating in the approaching season of fancies, "Your Fashion Shop" has just received a distinctive line of the loveliest dinner dresses ever before shown at this exclusive shop, which is saying a great deal when you will agree when you see them, as of course you will want to do. There is a cherry red, a pearly blue and a gorgeous thing in the new flame, which looks indeed exactly like the warm glow of a fireless flame, not at all the glaring color that has heretofore been called "flame." Your attention will be caught at once by that beautiful creation of black velvet, almost severe in its simplicity, with no other ornamentation than an ivory belt buckle half-mooned with rhinestones, and plenty of sheering of the soft material.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

The Tiniest slept all night long, not knowing there was something wrong. Poor Duncy, who had stayed on guard, had disappeared from sight.

The Indians who had pulled a trick, and captured him, by being sick, had promised, as they led him off, that he would be all right.

When morning came, the sun rose high and Scouty stretched and said, "Oh, my! I guess it's time we're getting up. Come on, you Tiniest."

"Let's dash out for some morning air and greet wee Duncy, who's out there. Then we will all start on a hike and try to see some sights."

The whole bunch jumped up to their feet. Said Golly, "Gee, this hut is neat. I never slept so well. I'd like to stay here for a while. Besides, I really think it best that we let Duncy have a rest. If we start walking right away, he will not last a mile."

"I'll call him!" Then she ran outside. "Why, Duncy isn't here," she cried. This brought the others rushing out. Said one, "Where can he be?"

"Perhaps he's merely walking 'round and very easily can be found. I wouldn't be surprised if he was hiding by a tree."

Then Windy started calling. "Hey, where are you, Duncy? Come this way. It's your turn, now, to take a snooze. We all are wide awake."

The others called with all their might, but Duncy still was out of sight. "He must be lost," said Doty. "We must search for Duncy's sake."

Just then wee Scouty shouted, "Look! A man is coming from the brook. Perhaps he knows where Duncy is. Come on, lads, we'll find out."

And so they rushed up to the man, who shouted, "Tell me, if you can, why you are so excited, lads. Now, what's it all about?"

New Officers Selected For Placentia Center

W. C. T. U. TOLD REPEAL MEANS WORLD SETBACK

YORBA LINDA, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Stella De Cew of Yorba Linda, assisted by Mrs. Ivon Pike, president; Mrs. Hazel Mayfield and Mrs. William Vogel, entertained the Placentia Women's Christian Temperance union, which includes both Placentia and Yorba Linda members, at her home on Yorba Linda boulevard Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. E. Dow Hoffman, pastor of the Fullerton Methodist church, was speaker of the occasion.

The founders of America sought these shores for freedom's sake, he said. Their training in freedom of thought and religious beliefs suffered a setback when war instead of arbitration solved the slave question. Again in 1914, when we thought we had trained in education of religious thought, the World War, "advocating murder and calling it war," came along and destroyed what we had taught. We must teach and live the same thing, he said, if we are to succeed in religious education. He blamed in great part the present breakdown of morals and the ravages of crime and outlaws, to the war ideals of the nations.

The speaker took up the fight for youth, declaring youth is exactly what the older generation has made it, and he urged the women in their problems on prohibition to "stand by prohibition as the cure, and do not compromise by calling it temperance instruction. Prohibition is the only cure."

Repeal of the liquor laws is the greatest slap the religious educators have had, he said, and has again, like the wars, thrown the world backward.

Additional appointments were made by the president. Mrs. E. H. Brunemier is Sunday school superintendent and will drop the L. T. L. work, having arranged to have it absorbed in a Sunday school education program. Mrs. John Tuffree is citizenship superintendent and Mrs. James Huntley flower mission superintendent. Miss May Miller will be in charge of prohibition education among the Mexican children. Mrs. Lola Grimm, retiring president of Placentia union, was introduced as the new county president.

Bridge Enjoyed In Midway City

MIDWAY CITY, Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miller, of Van Buren street entertained five tables at bridge Monday night, in a series of parties sponsored by the Huntington Beach Legion. Afterward the group motored to Huntington Beach and joined other groups for refreshments. Two of the local players, N. A. Nelson and Mrs. Harold Spafford, received prizes. Mr. Nelson winning men's first and Mrs. Spafford woman's second prize.

Present at the party at the Miller home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spafford, Mrs. J. L. Esser, Mrs. Dale Dunstan, Mrs. W. E. Moore, Mrs. Birdwell, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry McAdoo, Dr. and Mrs. Russell I. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foley, who acted as co-hosts and Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Beekkeepers From Southland To Hear Orange Co. Men

The four days' sessions of the Southern California Beekkeepers convention to be held at Balboa beginning Friday, October 13, will open with a program of industry talks by four Orange county beekkeepers.

The executive committee of the Orange county beekkeepers department, headed by C. E. Lush, chairman, has arranged for the following Orange county speakers at the opening session:

"Observations of a Beekkeeper on 8000 Mile Trip," C. E. Lush; "A Beekkeeper's Quiet Evening at Home," (an entertainment sketch) W. L. Bell and company, Orange; "Honey Conditions in Orange county," Roy K. Bishop, county apiary inspector; "Mistakes I Have Noted in Apiary Management," Percy Crump, Santa Ana; "Limits of Moving for Winter Fill-Up," Gerald Twombly, Fullerton.

The program starts at 10 a. m. on Friday, October 13. All sessions will be held in the Balboa Pavilion overlooking the bay.

ARRANGE PROGRAMS OF B. & P. W. CLUB

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 11.—Speakers and entertainers from out of town will feature many of the programs to be given this year by Business and Professional Women's club of San Clemente, it was announced at a dinner at the Social clubhouse Monday evening. Hazel Gilbert and Frances Underhill are members of the program committee.

New club members welcomed Mrs. Hoberlin, of Laguna Beach, and Miss Gladys Horral, of San Capistrano. Three new committees were appointed by the president, Genevieve Boettger, music chairman, Gladys Horral, research, Eleanor Clark and Edith Hoberlin; education, Mabel Cooper and Lucy Cotton. Betty Cohee was appointed custodian.

Guests welcomed were Mrs. Mae Grieg, of Oakland; Miss Rachel Hutchinson, of San Juan Capistrano, and Miss Pauline Neddermeyer, of Laguna Beach.

Members attending were Genevieve Boettger, Frances Underhill, Eleanor Clark, Lucy Cotton, Terra McGowan, Betty Cohee, Betty Joyce, Mable Cooper, Hazel Gilbert, Emma O. Edwards, Margaret Nelson, Mary Peary Barnett, Ina Monroe, Edith Hoberlin and Mary Neddermeyer.

Mary Pearl Barnett was dinner chairman. The next meeting on October 23 will be in Laguna Beach with Genevieve Boettger at the Blue Ribbon cafe. Eleanor Clark will provide the entertainment.

WED AT WINTERSBURG

WINTERSBURG, Oct. 11.—An evening wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Friend this week when Miss Verna M. Butler and Oscar M. Bowen were united in marriage at a ceremony performed by the Rev. A. W. Matson, pastor of the Wintersburg Methodist church.

The groom is a brother of Mrs. Josephine Wood, a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Friend. All present were relatives and included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Friend, Alfred Stinson; Mrs. Bowen, mother of the groom; Genevieve Wood and Barbara Wood and the Rev. Mr. Matson.

YULE PROGRAM DISCUSSED BY BUSINESS MEN

LA HABRA, Oct. 11.—Plans were discussed for a community Christmas tree for La Habra, at the meeting of the Business Men's association Monday evening. A committee was appointed to get prices on a tree and decorations and report back at the next meeting. Those on this committee are H. S. Lytle, Dr. B. H. Guthridge, E. M. Jackson and L. M. Hopper.

The question of the erection of street signs at the entrances to the city was brought up, and R. W. Vanderhoof and A. Silberman were appointed to serve on the ways and means committee with representatives of other organizations in the city.

H. R. Rich was appointed chairman of a committee to promote the sales of stamps and envelopes at the local postoffice, as reports from the office show that unless these sales are materially increased, there is probability of its reverting to a third-class office instead of the present second-class.

In response to complaints made by some of the merchants about the pupils of the high school being able to purchase school supplies at a much lower cost at the school than the merchants can afford to sell them, a committee headed by H. Fitzpatrick was instructed to investigate the matter. This question was brought up at a previous meeting, but further information is desired before any definite action is taken.

The association went on record as favoring the annual Halloween parade sponsored each year by the La Habra American Legion and auxiliary and pledged its support to the affair this year.

McFADDEN OUTLINES WATER POLICY AT C. OF C. SESSION

PLACENTIA, Oct. 11.—Ralph McFadden, candidate for election from the third district of the Orange County Water district, was principal speaker at the Placentia Chamber of Commerce meeting yesterday noon, and stated that his policy if elected will be to spread water in Orange county, and not on the debris cone, where water is now being spread, since that policy is lowering the water levels underground in the county.

He declared that the rights of the county to the flood waters of the river is one of the most important items in the election platform, and that "it is dangerous procedure when the people of Orange county let water get away from them."

He went on to say that "the principle governing this election is not politics but ability to do what needs doing in water arrangements for the county."

LOCAL MUSICIANS TO GIVE RECITAL

KREG NOTES

An appealing program of choice Spanish and Mexican compositions, arranged by such violin notables as Kreidler, Helfitz and Sarante, comprise a musical treat in store for Orange county folk tonight when Georgia Belle Walton, gifted violinist of this city, will be heard in a radio program broadcast from KREG, scheduled for 7 o'clock. Miss Walton, who will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong, pianist, fellow Orange county artist, will be featured on the program titled "The Magic Carpet Tour," arranged under the auspices of the Orange County Goodwill Cruise to Mexico, scheduled for November 4.

Miss Walton has arranged a program which will include "Romance Andalus," by Pablo Sarasate, named Spanish violinist and composer; Helfitz' arrangement of a prime Spanish favorite, "Estrellita"; and "Frangula," by Fritz Kreisler, whose rich, melodious composition and whose sympathetic execution of his own and other work have endeared him to American concert audiences.

The program will likewise include descriptive and explanatory comment concerning the 18-day cruise to Mexico in which Orange county residents will join with those of San Diego county next month.

QUEEN OF SHEBA IS RADIO TOPIC

A broadcast of unusual interest is scheduled for tonight at 7:45 p. m. from KREG under the title of "People Who Make News." This week's program will discuss personal and more or less intimate facts about world notables. Personalities to be discussed tonight will be Admiral Richard E. Byrd, navigator, explorer and gentleman, who is planning a new trip to the farthest north; Abbe Georges Lemaitre, priest and scientist and his theory of an expanding universe; Joseph Vincent McKee, New York's popular candidate for mayor; and the Queen of Sheba of 1000 years ago and the fat Queen of Sheba of today.

RADIO FEATURES

Time References are Pacific Standard Time

The plaintive Andante Cantabile from Tchaikowski's first string quartet, will be featured by Albert Spalding in his recital over KJH from 8:30 tonight. Other numbers by America's foremost violinist will include a violin arrangement of the familiar "Roses of Picardy" and Brahms' "Hungarian Dance No. 1."

Fritz Scheff, musical comedy and operetta favorite, and "Doc" Rockwell, vaudeville and radio comedian, will be guests during the broadcast at 6 tonight over KFI.

John McCormack, internationally renowned Irish-American tenor, will inaugurate his first extended series of radio concerts over an NBC network including KFI at 6:30 tonight.

Congress has authorized the spending of $500,000 by the federal emergency relief administration in states where federal aid is needed. President Roosevelt has left no doubt that the government will do all in its power to see that the needy have proper care. And Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, will tell how Uncle Sam plans to do the job of caring for the unemployed and needy during the coming winter in a broadcast over KFSD at 7:30 tonight.

Selections from Victor Herbert's ever-beautiful "Sweethearts" feature the "Three Old Favorites" hour tonight, 9-9:30 over KJH, when the favorite selections from the music-master's pen are played again.

Games of the past week will be discussed by Herb Dana, commissioner of officials of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, during his football talk over an NBC network, including KFI between 9:15 and 9:30 tonight. Dana will also analyze the most interesting plays, discuss players, interpret rules, and answer questions from listeners.

WEDNESDAY

Dr. Wendell C. Phillips, consulting ophthalmologist at the Manhattan eye, ear and throat hospital, will be the speaker on the Academy of Medicine program over the Columbia network, including KJH at 8:45 a. m. Thursday. His topic will be "Do You Take Your Hearing for Granted?"

An uncensored debate on British government policies with nine outstanding leaders in British party politics as speakers will begin tomorrow when Stanley Baldwin, former British prime minister, is heard from London, England, over a nation-wide NBC network including KECA and KFSD between 1:15 and 1:45 p. m. "In Defense of the National Government" will be the subject of Mr. Baldwin's address.

The Twilight Serenaders, a vocal quartet that comes from Wilmington each Wednesday to entertain Orange county radio listeners at 8:15 p. m., are receiving requests from various parts of Southern California for them to sing favorite songs of yesterday. Tonight's broadcast will include the favorites, "Home on the Range," "Mellow Mountain Moon," "Utah Trail" and the recent song hit, "The Last Round-up."

The last word in savings for women of Orange county and vicinity will be announced tomorrow afternoon during the presentation of "Sorority Shop Syncopators" from KREG at 4:30. "Tempus fugit" is the keynote of the presentation bidding "au revoir" to the Sororities' Third Anniversary Classic, a great opportunity event for every woman who would save money on fine clothes.

A colorful program of songs is programmed for 7:30 tonight when Ned Lewis, Whittier baritone, accompanied by Hal McCormack, will sing "Home on the Range," "Invictus" and "In the Gloaming." Hal will provide entertaining variety with the piano offering "Polonaise Militaire," by Chopin. The broadcasts by these artists are open to written requests, as each program is completed two days in advance of its presentation.

The only broadcast of popular music on KREG's schedule tonight, except a 15-minute program starting at 10:15, is that presented by Cal-Baden at 8:30, when "Sparkling Melodies" as played by the nation's foremost dance orchestras will go on the air. This program is a daily feature at this time.

Bonnie Mae Martin's presentation tomorrow at 11:45 a. m. from KREG will comprise a group of old favorite waltz tunes. Yes, she plays requests.

"The Causes of Misrule in Government and Industry in Relation to Technocracy" will be the subject of a lecture by Walter Thomas Mills at the meeting of the People's Forum, at Third and Bush streets, at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Mills will analyze the connections between business and government and will explain the constant struggle between these two elements to control each other. "It is the desire of business to have less government interference in business, and to this end all the forces of control and machine politics are brought into play to nullify government," said Mills. "On the other hand government is constantly trying to control business; this has about reached its climax in the NRA, but the industrialists are complying with it only outwardly."

Technocracy in practice will strike at the economic roots of corrupt practices and maladministration. Technocracy will produce a harmonious blend of business and government entirely in keeping with economic laws and can devote its entire time and energy to the service of the people and the common good."

Mills is speaking to large audiences throughout Southern California and reports enthusiastic reception to Technocracy's program for immediate action. The lecture is open to the public.

REDUCE PRICE OF MILK FURNISHED SCHOOL CHILDREN

Price of milk supplied children in the elementary schools will be reduced one cent per day, according to a report to the school board last night by Dr. Margaret Baker, board member who has had that work in charge.

Since the opening of school milk has been sold to students in the elementary and high schools at the rate of five cents per day. This amount, according to Dr. Baker's report, was one cent daily above the actual cost to the school of the milk.

In the high school, she said, the additional cent is necessary to cover the cost of distribution. In the elementary school the additional cent was charged to create a surplus for the purchase of milk for children of needy parents. This additional cent, however, she reported, instead of creating a surplus caused many parents to discontinue the purchase of daily milk for their children at the school.

Merchant Group Named In Suit On Fiesta Debts

Directors of the Santa Ana Merchants association and John Wilcox and Ralph McCutcheon, co-partners of the Fiesta Del Oro association, were named defendants yesterday in a suit filed by M. E. Johnson, representing seven creditors with unpaid bills from the July festival.

In the complaint, it is charged that $677.08 remains unpaid for material, labor, advertising and other services. The creditors maintain that payment of the bills was guaranteed by the directors of the merchants association before the Fiesta Del Oro association when a deficit was incurred.

MAN ABSOLVED OF BLAME IN CRASH DEATH

Burnette Lane, 26, 1330 West Ninth street, was absolved of blame yesterday afternoon by a coroner's jury in connection with the death of Isaac R. Leonard, 73, 1111 South Birch street, who was instantly killed Saturday night when struck on South Main street by Lane's car.

Lane testified that Leonard struck directly into the path of his car, and could not have been traveling more than 30 miles an hour. Carl Shower, driving directly behind the Lane machine, estimated that the speed of the car was from 30 to 35 miles while Lane himself said he was not exceeding 30 miles an hour.

George Bachman, who was standing in a nearby garage, said he heard the brakes of Lane's car before the impact. Coroner Earl Abbey was in charge of the inquest. The death of Leonard brought the total of traffic fatalities in Orange county for the year to 35.

BOARD NAMES SUBSTITUTES FOR TEACHERS

Last night the Santa Ana board of education approved the list of substitute teachers submitted by Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson.

In submitting the list Henderson said that it had been reduced because last year's list was so large that some of the teachers had received no work and others had worked only one or two days during the year. The list as approved last night for elementary schools is divided into an original and supplementary list with first call going to teachers on the original list.

Following are the substitutes for this year:
Elementary-Original list: Dorcas Jesse, June Arnold, Mrs. Louise Webster, Mrs. Sigrid Brown, Mrs. Agnes Kemper, Mrs. Sadie Maties, Helen Drake, Marge Bond, Lorine Shippe, Mrs. June Mayhall, Supplementary list: Mrs. Josephine Barr, Mrs. Virginia Brand, Mrs. Josephine Glines, Lucy Tolson, Mrs. Mildred Morrison, Mrs. Maxine Adams, Mrs. Ora Schleier.
Secondary-Original list: W. W. Wieman, T. P. Humiston, Mildred Ranney, Margaret Webster, Dorothy Garstang, Faris Edgar, Mrs. Jean Ebersole, Mrs. Hallie Adams, Freeman, Phyllis Jamison, Mrs. K. W. Walton, Velma Witt.
Language-Margaret Gianfoni.

SCHOOLS NOT TO HAVE PARADE FLOAT

Santa Ana schools will not have an official float in the Armistice Day parade in Orange this year. The decision not to enter a float was reached last night at a meeting of the Santa Ana Board of Education when a request for such entry was received from Earl C. Hobbs of Orange, chairman of the parade committee.

The theme for this year's parade, which will be held in Orange, has been announced as "California History." After a discussion of the possibility of entering a float the cost was declared to be greater than the 1933-34 budget could stand. There is a possibility, however, that the schools of the city will be represented in the parade by a marching or musical unit.

LIFE OF BEE, HONEY MAKING, TOLD IN TALK

Describing the life of the bee and methods of producing honey, C. E. Lush, Orange, was the featured speaker at the regular meeting of Santa Ana Ketter's cafe yesterday night at the Rotary club.

Lush pointed out that the queen bee is the most specialized creature in the world, existing for the sole purpose of laying eggs. During the height of the laying season, he said, a queen bee lays as many as 2000 eggs a day.

The worker bee is the underdeveloped female of the species, he declared, having none of the sex organs, but having a long tongue for carrying honey and pockets for carrying pollen.

"Honey is the sweet nectar of flowers gathered by bees," he said, "and evaporated to 82 per cent of natural sugars stored in combs. There are as many flavors of honey as there are flowers from which the bees get their nectar."

"There is no ruler in a hive of bees; they all work together for the common good. Their government is perfect; it is for the spirit of the hive. Their organization is perfect. They get rid of those who don't work and who are useless to the community."

It was Lush's contention that bees are happy and contented, a life with more pleasure out of life than do men and women.

COUPLE HELD TO ANSWER MURDER CASE

Overruling the plea of the defense that a positive identification had not been made, Judge Kenneth Morrison late yesterday cited Jesus Pena and Sylvia Ybarra to the superior court on charges of murdering Francisco Mendoza, 35, in Delhi last October. The preliminary hearing started yesterday morning.

Deputy District Attorney Leo Fris concluded his introduction of witnesses with a brief motion to the court that the two Mexicans be bound over to the higher court. W. M. Burke, defense counsel, attempted to show that the identification of Mendoza hinged only upon the insufficient testimony of Dr. F. H. Johnson of Delhi and Philip Delsie, brother of the defendant.

"Fris countered with the declaration that both the defendants had identified Mendoza by leading officers to the body and recognizing clothing and teeth, and that there was no doubt but that the man found in a deserted Laguna Beach ravine was the man that Pena confessed killing Halloween night in Delhi.

Following Morrison's decision to bind over the defendants and hold them in the county jail without bail, Fris announced that he would file information in superior court on October 20, at 9 a. m.

The afternoon session of the trial was featured by the reading of testimony given by Jesus Pena on October 5, in which he changed his original story and said he came to Mendoza's house at midnight and called him outside, later of the killing was that Mendoza had called him to a fence some distance from the house and had attempted to kill him with a knife.

The later story of Pena was significant because it coincides with the confession of Mrs. Ybarra to the effect that she and Mendoza were in the house when Pena arrived and called Mendoza outside. She said she knew nothing of the killing until Pena stumbled into the house and told her he had killed her friend. Although Pena gave her no reason for killing Mendoza, she admitted that it was a love triangle, with both men seeking her affections. She had lived with Mendoza since February, 1932, and had been receiving visits from Pena during most of this time.

Lecl Ross, court reporter, read the later confession of Pena from the witness stand after Deputy Sheriff Hendrick Zabel had continued his identification of Mendoza's clothes and teeth. Dr. Johnson, who is in the postoffice of Delhi, said he had seen Mendoza two days before the murder, and described the clothes he was wearing at that time, the same that were found on the body when it was located September 25.

Had Been Drinking
Dr. John J. Montana, county autopsy surgeon, testified that Mendoza came to his death from a fractured skull caused by a blunt instrument. Philip Delsie, who was at the Mendoza home on the night of the killing, said that a group of men in the house, including Pena and Mendoza, had been drinking beer. He said his sister and Pena had never told him what happened to Mendoza except that he had gone away. He told of making three trips to Delhi with Pena to move the furniture in the Mendoza home to his house in Stanton.

The prosecution of Pena and Mrs. Ybarra culminates an extensive investigation called Deputy Sheriff Hendrick Zabel had continued his identification of Mendoza's clothes and teeth. Dr. Johnson, who is in the postoffice of Delhi, said he had seen Mendoza two days before the murder, and described the clothes he was wearing at that time, the same that were found on the body when it was located September 25.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(UP)—Stocks were dull today with prices moving uncertainly.
Resistance was displayed against adverse market factors such as a strong dollar, decline in wheat, a bushel in wheat, reports the government would call part of the $6,000,000 Liberty 4 1/2 per cent issue, and another drop in the price of copper metal.
